BATTLE FOR DEMOCRACY'S STANDARD BEARER OPENS AT BALTIMORE TODAY

WILL FIGHT FROM THE GAVEL'S FALL

William J. Bryan Prepares For War In Behalf of Progressives.

MAY BE ULTIMATE NOMINEE

Nebraskan Stands Out as Dominant Figure in the Convention and His Friends Figure on Him for the Presidency.

Baltimore, June 24.—All hope of averting a fight from the fall of the gavel in the Democratic National Convention vanished tonight when the National Committee approved the selection of former Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, as temporary chairman, in defiance of the threat of William J. Bryan, to make an issue of the alleged conservatism of Judge Parker as opposed to the progressivism which the distinguished Nebraskan declares should prevail.

An effort was made by the National Committee today to placate Mr. Bryan, but a conference resulted in complete failure. Mr. Bryan would not recede from the position he had taken and tonight prepared to make his fight from the floor of the convention tomorrow, to rally the progressives to his standard in opposition to Judge Parker.

Mr. Bryan announced today that if no other good progressive could be prevailed upon to make the race, he would enter the field himself as the opponent of Judge Parker. The Nebraskan, three times the candidate of his party for the Presidency, stood out today as the dominant figure in the convention. All contingents of the future, including the nomination of a Presidential candidate, seemed to hinge upon what he should do. The voting section of the convention was more marked than Mr. Bryan might himself be the ultimate Presidential nominee. Some of his friends tonight declared that he would be voted for in the convention whether formally placed in nomination or not, and they expressed the belief that he would win if the voting should go to a fourth or fifth ballot.

In furtherance of their hope of nominating Mr. Bryan, some of his friends, it is said, are bending their energies to preventing a coalition of the Clark and Wilson forces. They are talking of Bryan and Wilson as a possible ticket, and the suggestion is receiving attention in many quarters.

In the event that Mr. Bryan should not be a candidate himself for temporary chairman, it was said he might urge Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana, his running mate of four years ago, for the place. The leaders tonight, however, expected Mr. Bryan to enter the race.

The contest over the chairmanship is looked forward to with trepidation by some of the leaders and by the supporters of several of the Presidential aspirants. One of the most interesting developments looked for is the stand to be taken by the Clark and Wilson forces. A large number of these already have been pledged to support the choice of the National Committee, whoever he might be. This action was regarded in the State delegations as distinctly an anti-Bryan move. There has been a long standing friendship between Mr. Bryan and Speaker Clark. The delegates to the convention tonight are wondering if tomorrow's battle will cause a rupture.

A coincidence is that Mr. Bryan is arraying himself against the only man who has shared with him the Presidential nomination of his party since the memorable campaign of 1896-1898. Judge Parker's comparatively wide margin of success in the National Committee, 31 to 20, was taken by many of the leaders tonight as an indication of defeat for Mr. Bryan. The latter's friends decline to put any such interpretation upon the action of the committee.

Mr. Bryan said: "I had expected it. When Mr. Guffey was seated against the protests of the Democrats of Pennsylvania I learned what I had expected that a majority of that committee either had no conception of Democracy or was so slavishly under the control of the predatory interests as not to be free to follow their convictions. The reasons which they give are like all reasons given in defense of wrong. They are insincere and are not the reasons that really influence them. The fight will be resumed tomorrow at which time a progressive will be presented for the convention to vote for, and the line will be drawn so that the delegates can decide whether they will ally themselves with the Belmont-Ryan-Murphy crowd, that overwhelmed the party with defeat eight years ago, and which is in close and continuous co-partnership with the crowd that nominated Mr. Taft at Chicago."

"The predatory interests have no politics. They are with the party that serves them. Having enabled a minority of the Republicans to override the will of a majority of Republicans at Chicago, they are now here to enable a minority of the Democrats to override the majority in this convention. "There is not a great exploiting interest that is not represented in the lobbies of the hotel; there is not a corrupting influence in American politics that is not being used, and the delegates to this convention underestimate the intelligence of the men who sent them here if they think that they can go back and deceive them into believing that they supported Mr. Parker from any worthy motive. The talk of harmony is too absurd to deserve consideration. I tried to secure harmony by urging several weeks ago to the committee, Mr. Clark and Mr. Wilson, whose instructed delegates constitute nearly two-thirds of the convention, to agree upon a candidate for the purpose of avoiding friction. They refused to do this, but they refused to take the choice of either candidate, and at Mr. Murphy's dictation forced Mr. Parker's nomination.

"I shall discuss Mr. Parker's fitness for the position tomorrow. It was enough tonight to say that if he does not know whose agent he is he lacks the intelligence necessary for a presidential officer, and if he does know, he does not deserve the support of any man who has the right to call himself a Democrat.

"I expect to present the name of some Progressive and to support his claims before the convention. If I fail to find a man to lead the fight, my name will be presented as a candidate for temporary chairman. I have no way of knowing how the convention stands, but the Democrats of the Nation have done enough for me to justify me in suffering defeat if necessary in their defense. One Republican party is enough in this country for whatever we may call ourselves, if we cannot distinguish ourselves from them in our actions, people will not pay much attention to our words."

There was a cheer from the delegates and visitors who swarmed in Mr. Bryan's rooms when the Nebraskan concluded his statement. Mr. Bryan was in conference late tonight with his associates mapping out tomorrow's contest before the convention, which meets at noon. That the National Committee felt the potency of Mr. Bryan's influence became apparent early this afternoon when a recess was taken to permit a "peace committee" to call on him. The first move of this committee, composed of National Chairman Norman E. Mack, Vice Chairman Hall, was to bring Judge Parker and Mr. Bryan together at a conference. It was said that Judge Parker went over many of the points of his "keynote" speech with Mr. Bryan in the hope of convincing him of the progressive note that it would strike.

The effort was unavailing. Mr. Bryan soon left the conference, held at the National Committee headquarters, asserting that while the interview was pleasant indeed, he had failed to change his attitude on the temporary chairmanship in any way whatsoever. As the doors of the conference room opened and Mr. Bryan stepped briskly out and disappeared, Judge Parker could be seen within looking wistfully out over the city.

to nominate—728. It had been expected by many political observers that during the two weeks preceding the convention some of the candidates might form a coalition, but no such thing has occurred and this fact, Mr. Bryan's friends declare, augurs well for him.

Mr. Bryan will have his opportunity to speak before the convention tomorrow, and some of the Presidential boomers here are plainly nervous as to the effect he might have.

If he loses as temporary chairman of the convention Mr. Bryan is slated by his State delegation for the Committee on Resolutions and undoubtedly will be chosen its chairman. As such he would have a leading part in framing the party's platform and would present it in person to the convention just prior to calling the roll of States for Presidential nomination. The seven avowed Presidential aspirants are Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey; Speaker Champ Clark, of Missouri; Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama; Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio; Governor Simeon Baldwin, of Connecticut; Governor John E. Burke, of North Dakota, and Governor T. R. Marshall, of Indiana.

Outside of these the men most talked of are Mr. Bryan, Mayor Gaynor, of New York, and Governor John A. Dix, of New York. Mr. Bryan frequently during the last few months has declared that he was not in any sense a candidate, but it is difficult to find a State delegation in which he is not discussed as a possibility. One claim put forward by Mr. Bryan's supporters is that with him in the field there might ensue a coalition with some of the disaffected Republicans interested in a third party movement.

Up to this time, however, the arriving delegates have given comparatively little thought to the Presidency. The sharp contest between Mr. Bryan and the majority of the National Committee over the selection of Judge Parker as temporary chairman, has overshadowed everything else. The men in charge of the various candidates are doing all in their power, however, to create noise and enthusiasm for their principal. In contrast to the methods of the Chicago convention, the statements put out merely extol the respective candidates without casting aspersions on the others. The principal campaigning is in the way of distributing copies of the "houn dawg" song, hat bands stamped with the candidates' names, banners, posters and all manner of contrivances. Song clubs have been imported to sing of the famous Ozark houn—the battler of the Clark forces—while others are rendering selections more or less melodious, extolling the virtues of Wilson, Bryan and other candidates. There are plenty of bands and marching clubs in town, too. Baltimoreans are making a carnival of convention week. The streets tonight teemed with sightseers and merry-makers.

OUTLINES

Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell were yesterday held guilty of contempt of court by the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, in connection with an injunction in the Buck's Stove and Range Co. boycott case.

Former Judge B. Parker was chosen as the candidate for temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention last night by the National Committee. He received 31 votes, Ollie James 20 and Senator O'Gorman 2. Carl L. Hamilton, an instructor at the Army aviation school at College Park, Md., was fatally injured in an airplane accident yesterday.

President Taft sent a special message to Congress yesterday recommending an appropriation of $1,350,000 for the use of the War Department in the joint maneuvers of the regular army and National Guard.

All hope of averting a fight at the Baltimore convention vanished last night with the selection by the National Committee of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman. W. J. Bryan will lead the fight against him and his friends think he will be the ultimate Presidential nominee.

In conference with a number of his supporters yesterday Col. Roosevelt made known his intention to cut entirely away from the Republican party and organize a new one from the ground up. The Democratic National Committee last night voted to seat the Roger Sullivan delegation from Illinois, turning down a case brought by the Harrison-Heast faction.

N. C. DELEGATION IN CAUCUS

Name Committees and Officers on Eve Of Convention—No Action of Presidential Preference—Bryan A Candidate

(By W. P. Mangum Turner.)

Baltimore, Md., June 24.—With every prospect of William J. Bryan placing himself before the Democratic National Convention in such a way that he will almost certainly become a candidate for President, the greatest uncertainty prevails tonight as to what will be the outcome in the convention. This afternoon one of the leading papers came out with a statement which looked like it will be William J. Bryan on one side and all indications are that the conservatives of the party are centering on Underwood. There is great difference of opinion as to the effect on Wilson followers of his lining up with Bryan. The great fear of the Wilson people is that Bryan will step in and usurp his place as leader of the Progressives. On the chairmanship fight the North Carolina delegation gave a majority for Parker as most of the delegation do not think Bryan should try to dictate, and especially in face of the decision of the committee.

At a caucus of the North Carolina delegation tonight Governor Glenn pressed and was also chosen as chairman of the delegation without opposition. There was a fight on the choice for platform committees. The extreme progressives put up E. J. Justice, of Greensboro, and opposing forces W. C. Dowd, of Charlotte, the latter winning by a vote of 29 to 17. Josephus Daniels was re-elected National committeeman. W. C. Hounsome of Asheville, was named as a member of the Credentials Committee; R. A. Doughton, of Sparta, Committee on Rules and General Carr, of Durham, vice chairman of the delegation. No action was taken on suggestion made as to how the delegation should vote on President. The advent of Bryan, it looks like, will have a considerable effect on the action of the North Carolina delegation, as there are a great many anti-Bryan men on the delegation and among them many supporters of no particular candidate.

Following is a complete list of the North Carolina delegation at large and by districts:

Delegates at large: W. C. Dowd, Charlotte; A. W. McLean, Lumberton; R. B. Glenn, Winston-Salem; J. S. Carr, Durham; W. C. Newland, Lenoir; E. J. Justice, Greensboro; W. C. Hamner, Ashboro; E. J. Hale, Fayetteville; W. T. Dortch, Goldsboro.

First district: W. G. Lamb, Williamston; L. L. Smith, Gatesville; E. F. Aydt, Elizabeth City; F. C. Harding, Greenville.

Second district: W. A. Finch, Wilson; A. S. Rascoe, Windsor; W. C. Clark, Tarboro; M. W. Ransom, Littleton.

Third district: Nathan O'Berry, Goldsboro; E. J. Hill, Warsaw; A. R. Howard, Clinton; L. G. Daniels, Newbern.

Fourth district: Ed S. Abell, Smithfield; R. B. White, Franklinton; Albert L. Cox, Raleigh; J. B. Ramsay, Rocky Mount.

Fifth district: A. W. Graham, Oxford; G. H. Hastings, Winston-Salem; V. S. Bryant, Durham; C. H. Hanes, Mount Airy.

Sixth district: O. L. Clark, Clarkton; J. B. Underwood, Fayetteville; H. C. McQueen, Wilmington; A. J. McKinnon, Macon.

TEDDY WILL HAVE BRAND NEW PARTY

Col. Roosevelt Decides to Cut Entirely Away From Republicans.

PLANNED TO SEIZE CONTROL

The Colonel Gives A Glimpse Into Secret History of the Chicago Convention—"Could Have Been Nominated."

Cleveland, Ohio, June 24.—A new party from the ground-up is the Roosevelt programme. After a series of discussions with his lieutenants today before leaving Chicago, in which there were several sharp clashes, Col. Roosevelt decided to cut entirely away from the party with which his whole public career has been identified. His decision was a disappointment to those who favored the organization of what might be considered an Independent Republican party with which various State organizations might co-operate and still maintain, it was hoped, a nominal regularity.

"There must be no compromise, no straddle," Colonel Roosevelt said. As an indication of his determination, he said that when he returned to Oyster Bay he would communicate with a number of Democrats, who he thought, might wish to join the new party. When he had left Chicago, with the first plans completed and his leaders scattering to all parts of the country, Col. Roosevelt expressed himself as pleased with the outcome of convention week, although it was unexpected to him. He said that the way in which his action had been received was encouraging, and that he had a mass of letters and telegrams from all parts of the country, from both Democrats and Republicans offering support.

The Republican nomination for President, Col. Roosevelt asserted tonight, was his for the asking on the day that President Taft was re-nominated. He declined to accept it, he said, on the terms under which the offer was made.

On his way back to Oyster Bay the former President gave a glimpse into secret history of the last day of the convention, when it was apparent that the tide of battle had turned resistlessly against him. It was a plan to seize control of the convention at the last moment by a sudden move, overturn the Taft majority and make Roosevelt the nominee. This is the story as he told it:

Early Saturday morning a group of delegates from Southern States arranged a private interview with Col. Roosevelt. They told him they had come to the conclusion that the best way to win was to make a sudden move, overturn the Taft majority and make Roosevelt the nominee. This is the story as he told it:

One provision was made, Col. Roosevelt continued. It was that he might accept the nomination from the committee as composed and not insist upon removal of the 78 delegates whom he contended were fraudulent before he would recognize any act of the convention. The delegates told him, he said, that their band would stand together on the roll call of the Presidential nominee, but that it would be hopeless for them to attempt to combine with the Roosevelt minority to unseat the 78 delegates.

Col. Roosevelt said he informed these emissaries that if he should be nominated under these conditions he would not accept the nomination. He told them to go to the delegates whom they represented and bring back to him a pledge signed by 30 delegates, agreeing to combine with the Roosevelt delegates and make the attempt to start all over again to organize the convention and to unseat the 78 contested delegates. The attempt failed.

Col. Roosevelt said a considerable number of signatures to the pledge were obtained, but that it had proved impossible to hold a sufficiently large part of the delegates in line for the course of action upon which he insisted to give it the chance of success. The chief thing of interest to Roosevelt's supporters today was whether they would be able to carry with them the strength of the following, which Col. Roosevelt has heretofore had within the Republican party. Some of them said frankly that the movement was inaugurated on the assumption that since Col. Roosevelt had been the choice of the party in a number of Republican States, it would be possible to bring these States in line for the new party. No plan has yet been decided upon by which it would be possible to effect such a transfer of workable organizations from the Republican party to the new enterprise.

Col. Roosevelt expressed confidence that a way would be found. He said that he expected some of the Republican office holders and workers would choose to remain with the party. He believed, however, that he would have ultimately the support of the substantial part of the organizations which were with him in the campaign of the last four months.

DECIDES AGAINST LABOR OFFICIALS

Court Holds Gompers, Morrison and Mitchell Guilty of Contempt.

SENTENCED PASSED ON THEM

Supreme Court of District of Columbia Passes on Case—Labor Men Take An Appeal to U. S. Supreme Court

Washington, June 24.—Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell, the labor leaders, were today held guilty of contempt of court by the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, in connection with a court's injunction in the Buck's Stove and Range boycott case. They will attempt to appeal again to the Supreme Court of the United States which reversed their former conviction. Justice Wright sentenced Gompers to one year, Morrison to six months and John Mitchell nine months.

Justice Daniel Thew Wright announced the decision of the court. Bondsman were on hand and attorneys for the labor men gave notice of an intention to file an appeal to have the Supreme Court review the judgment. In its previous review of the case the Supreme Court reversed the conviction on the grounds that the contempt proceedings had been improperly instituted. New proceedings were at once begun. The sentences under the first conviction were Gompers one year, Morrison nine months, Mitchell six months.

The charge was that the three men as officers of the American Federation of Labor, through their organization's official publication had disregarded Justice Gould's injunction against the publication of the Buck's Stove and Range Company's name in its "boycott list."

After Gompers had been sentenced he attacked the decision, declaring that while "Justice Wright lives in our time, his decision and sentences disclose a mental concept of more than two centuries ago, when the workman was either a slave or a serf."

"Information just came to me that the decision was completed more than a month ago, but withheld until after the close of the Chicago Republican National convention. If true, the inference is obvious."

In passing sentence on President Gompers, the court said: "For the ring leader and chief of the duty of the court, if it is to be ascertained by its obligations to administer the justice of the land without respect to persons, requires it in determining a penalty appropriate for this, the most dangerous and destructive of contempts, at least to parallel the extreme penalty which is fixed by good precedents."

After a lengthy recital of the functions of the law and judicial power, the opinion concludes: "The evidence shows for these respondents an assiduous and persistent effort to undermine the supremacy of the law by undertaking insidiously to destroy the confidence of the people in the integrity of the tribunals which maintain it by inculcating minds of their followers and the people with a virus of mischievous falsehoods and misrepresentation concerning the court and judges, seeking and hoping that the support of the people might be withdrawn from these tribunals and by this means their power undone, their judgment rendered valueless and forceless."

"The defendants are here at the court bar to answer; they have been afforded full opportunity to hear the evidence against them and to say what, if any, reasons can exist against their punishment. Every part of their response, for they offer no defense, if measured by the words of their leader, Gompers: 'The things I am charged with I did. Go to h— with your injunctions.'"

NAVAL CREW MANS LINER. The La Provence Makes Trip in Spite of Seamen's Strike. New York, June 23.—The French Line steamer La Provence arrived today from Havre manned by 280 men from the French navy, including sailors, engineers and firemen. The unusual crew was necessary because of the seamen's strike at Havre, which the crew of the La Provence recently joined.

The naval crew handled the strange ship without mishap, but the passage was slower than usual, as the firemen were unfamiliar with the boilers and were unable to maintain speed. The delay occasioned by the strike caused most of the cabin passengers who had booked on the La Provence to sail by other steamers.

GEN. DRAIN OPERATED ON.

Drain, president of the National Rifle Association of America, who was stricken with appendicitis a few days ago, was operated on today. The attending physicians report the operation a success, and their patient's condition satisfactory.

Being Relaid With Heavier Rail—Death in Wayne County.
(Special Star Correspondence.)
Goldsboro, N. C., July 24.—The Smithfield branch of the A. C. L. Railway running from this city to Smithfield is being very much improved by the laying of 70-pound rail. This is the smallest of Goldsboro's four railroads, but the people are nevertheless deeply interested in any improvement to it. Capt. Jack Collier has charge of the train that operates between here and Smithfield and is very proud of his new rail. The Elm Street Methodist Sunday school chartered his train on Thursday, and were taken to Holt's Mill Pond, near Princeton, for its annual picnic, going down early in the morning and returning the same evening.

The funeral of Mr. Leonard Dickinson was held at 10 o'clock Friday morning from his home near Fremont, in Nahant township. Mr. Dickinson died Thursday morning after a lingering illness of several months. He was one of Wayne county's most representative citizens, a brave Confederate soldier, an affluent farmer and a correct man in all his walks of life. His son, Mr. M. T. Dickinson, is a prominent member of the Goldsboro bar.

Effort to impeach testimony of Franklin and Harrington.
Los Angeles, June 24.—Not only will Clarence S. Darrow take the stand in his trial for alleged jury bribery, but Mrs. Darrow also will be a witness for the defense. Although no statement was made by District Attorney Fredericks as to the time he expected to complete the State's case, attorneys for the defense announced that they would be ready to begin the presentation of their side of the case the latter part of this week. They expect the prosecution to rest about Friday and possibly sooner.

Between 40 and 100 witnesses will testify for the defense, but as most of the evidence will be in the nature of impeachment of Bert S. Franklin, and John R. Harrington, the two principal witnesses for the State, only about two weeks may be required to complete the defense. Mrs. Darrow will be one of the witnesses through whose testimony an effort will be made to impeach the veracity of Harrington.

Harrington was expected to resume the stand when the trial was called at 1:30 this afternoon.

Malaria

Most people who suffer from malaria, are not confined to bed much, if at all. It's a tenacious, irritating ailment that keeps one half sick, half well. Not sick enough to go to bed and stay there; not well enough to be fit for work or social pleasures.

KETTERER'S

Excelsior
BLOOD PURIFIER
(K. E. B. P.)

has been found to cure malaria more effectively than any remedy we know of. Malarial symptoms, chills and fever, are due to poison in the blood. Quinine breaks up malaria, but does not always cure permanently. Ketterer's Excelsior Blood Purifier destroys the poison, enriches the blood and usually effects a permanent cure, and in a natural manner, by removing the cause.

BAND NEW PARTY

State organizations as a whole are against him, it is his plan to set up new machinery with complete State and National tickets. With the announcement in Chicago by Governor Hiram Johnson, of California, of the committee on organization, the movement assumed more definite shape, and it was said that in several States the leaders had begun their work.

Governor Johnson said the National convention would be held late in July or early in August. The place has not been selected. A report that the convention might decide to give up the fight this year should be the Democratic National Convention nominate a candidate who would be recognized as a "progressive," was denied by Col. Roosevelt, when he said that he would carry the fight through to the end. Col. Roosevelt is due in New York at 9:25 o'clock tomorrow morning. Thence he will go to Oyster Bay, where he expects to remain for several weeks.

LODGE WILL STAND BY TAFT

Massachusetts Senator Pleased With Republican Platform
Nahant, Mass., June 24.—In a statement given out at his home in Nahant today, United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, declared himself in full accord with the platform of the Republican convention at Chicago. Senator Lodge took no part in the Taft-Roosevelt contest for the nomination.

"I regard the declared determination of the party to stand firmly for the Constitution, and for the independence of the courts, because they are vital to the maintenance of free government, as of vast importance," said Senator Lodge. "I shall give the Republican party and to its candidates and its policies the best support of which I am capable in the coming campaign."

WARM WEEK PREDICTED

Precipitation Will Be Light, Says the Weather Bureau
Washington, June 24.—The Weather Bureau's weekly bulletin says conditions indicate that the coming week will be one of warm and generally fair weather over the Northern and Middle States, east of the Rocky Mountains, while in the Southern States and generally west of the Rocky Mountains temperatures will average near the normal with local rains.

The precipitation during the week will be light and local. "It is not probable that a well-defined barometric depression will cross the country during the week," says the forecast.

GUARDS KILL CUBAN REBELS.

Detachment Fights Insurgent Band and Takes Ammunition.
Santiago, Cuba, June 24.—A detachment of rural guards under Capt. Peria had an engagement today with an insurgent band under the near Mayari. Five of the insurgents were killed, and the rurales captured 15 horses and much ammunition.

The general opinion prevails here that the revolt will be quelled, but the insurgent leaders, Estenoz and Isonet, are still in the field, and have yet to be reckoned with.

Havana, June 24.—Gen. Montecagudo, the Cuban commander-in-chief, is believed to be busy making disposition of his forces in Oriente with the object of forcing the insurgents to accept combat, and thus end the campaign with a decisive stroke. The government has received no late advices from the scene of operations, but continues to express confidence that the revolt will be speedily quelled.

That the presence of the American battleships at Guantanamo, Cuba, has created a decided stroke. The government has received no late advices from the scene of operations, but continues to express confidence that the revolt will be speedily quelled.

3-DAY RECESS FOR CONGRESS.
National Legislative Machinery Will Halt for Convention.
Washington, June 23.—The present week sees Congress still marking time for politics. With the close of the Democratic National Convention both houses will settle down to business again.

The Senate will convene at 10:30 tomorrow morning and, in accordance with the agreement among the leaders, will recess at 1 o'clock for three days.

PLENTY OF PROOF

From People You Know—From Wilmington Citizens.
The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced by evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Wilmington, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

Mrs. W. W. Minco, 712 Vickers St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I received from their use. For a long time kidney trouble clung to me and I was caused great annoyance by the kidney secretions. My back ached and I did not seem able to get a minute's peace. Some days I was hardly able to move around to attend to my work. At last I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Bellamy's Drug Store and they restored me to good health." (Statement given February 24, 1908.)

Endorses Doan's Again.
Mrs. Minco was interviewed on December 27, 1910, and she said: "I can still speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and recommend them as being good for kidney trouble. During the past two years I have taken this remedy and it always has a prompt and beneficial effect."

JACKSONVILLE TRIMS THEM

Snatches Saturday's Game from Pollockville 5 to 0
Jacksonville, N. C., June 24.—Jacksonville won a fine-inning game from Pollockville here yesterday by the score of 5 to 0. Rain prevented the game continuing for the entire nine innings.

Hargette and Gilman starred at the bat while the pitching of Crawford feasted, he not allowing the visiting team a solitary hit. Batteries for Jacksonville, Crawford and Newell; for Pollockville, Bender, Hudson and Hughes and Barnes.

New Orleans, June 24.—A timely

bell kept Willie Ritchie, of San Francisco, from knocking out Joe Mandot, of this city, at the end of a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight. Mandot, groggy from Ritchie's stunning rights and lefts to the face and stomach, held on and fought weakly. Ritchie never let up for a second and apparently was in good condition at the end of the fight. The decision was left to the sporting writers of the local papers.

BISHOP'S RETREAT TODAY

Annual Gathering of Episcopal Clergymen of Diocese of East Carolina As Guests of Bishop Robert Strange

Preceded by a very pleasant and well-attended supper last evening, the annual bishop's retreat, given by Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, bishop of the diocese of East Carolina, to the white clergy of the diocese as a season for study and recreation, will open this morning at Wrightsville Beach to continue for a week or ten days.

The retreat will be formally opened this morning at 7:45 with a short prayer service in the Wrightsville Beach chapel, where all the sessions will be held. Following the opening service the clergymen will have their breakfast and at 9 o'clock they will convene for a discussion of various phases of church and pastoral work. This session will continue for an hour or so, and the remainder of the day will be devoted to such forms of recreation as the clergymen may care for.

This order will be carried out each day, as long as the retreat continues. The days will begin with a short prayer service, and after breakfast the one session of the day will be held. Thus those in attendance will have the afternoons and evenings to themselves, enabling them to combine the work of the discussions and study very pleasantly with some of the many forms of recreation and amusement which are available at the resort.

A prominent feature of the work of the retreat this year will be the review and discussion of a number of books. The books to be reviewed and discussed are as follows:

1. The Philosophy of the Christian Religion—Dr. Fairbairn. Written digests—Dr. W. H. Milton and Rev. C. N. Tyndell. Discussion—Rev. C. F. Smith and Rev. Morrison Bethea.

Mr. Thos. K. Woody Injured.

Mr. Thos. K. Woody, of the local Stief piano store, was slightly injured yesterday afternoon about 1:15 o'clock when a wooden brick fell from one of the windows in Mr. H. E. Bonitz's office through the skylight into the office of the piano store on Princess street. How the brick came to be dislodged is not known. Mr. Woody sustained a bruise on the back of his head, either from the brick or from flying glass. It was necessary to take three stitches in the cut. However, his injury is only a scalp wound and no serious consequences are anticipated. Mr. S. R. Coley, the manager of the Stief company here, who was in the office with Mr. Woody at the time, was not injured.

Very Life-like Lion.

The Pittsburg Water Heater Company's display in one of the windows of the Tidewater Power Company, is attracting much attention. The scene represents a portion of a jungle, in the foreground of which stands a mechanical lion that a timid natured person would hardly care to meet in the dark, so lifelike is its appearance. The display is given in connection with the demonstration of the company's water heaters which is being made this week. The public is cordially invited to call and see the display as well as a demonstration of the heaters.

UGLY AFFAIR AT NEWBERN.

White Merchant Arrested on a Charge of Assault.

(Special Star Telegram.) Newbern, N. C., June 24.—Shortly before 12 o'clock last night, John C. Smith, a white man who conducts a grocery store on Elm street, in the western part of this city, was placed under arrest on a warrant charging him with attempted criminal assault on Alberta Owens, a 11-year-old colored girl. He was placed in jail until this afternoon, when he was given a preliminary hearing before Justices of the Peace Street and Barrington. Probable cause was found, and the defendant was bound over to the next term of Superior Court under a bond of $2,000, which he could not give, and was recommitted to jail.

Known people and children, for less child, tonic, driven out more. The old standard grocers' taste. Malaria causes loss of appetite.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Three Colored Gladiators Fined Heavily—Other Cases Yesterday.

William Johnson, Cass Hill and Jim Spencer, a dusky trio, were the stars in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, being charged with an affray in which deadly weapons were used. All were found guilty of the charge and a fine of $25 and costs was imposed upon each, with the alternative of going to the county roads for three months if he failed to raise the amount of his fine and costs.

From the evidence the three negroes lay out above something and mixed things in a determined but unsuccessful effort to annihilate each other. The battle was a strenuous one, but by some strange freak of chance nobody was seriously injured.

Irene Reynolds, colored, who had so much faith in the "love" clause in her marriage vow that she endeavored to manhandle a policeman when he endeavored to arrest her husband, Henry Reynolds, on a charge of being drunk, was found guilty on two counts, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. She drew a sentence of 30 days on the county farm, in each instance, making a total sentence of two months. Henry Reynolds, her husband, was given the alternative of paying a fine of $5 and costs for being drunk or spending 30 days on the county roads.

R. M. Coleman, white, was found guilty on a charge of nuisance and was fined $25 and costs. He was arrested for swearing and cursing on the public streets. T. A. Byrd, a white man, was taxed the costs for firing a pistol in the city limits.

W. F. Thompson, colored, was charged with jumping train. Judgment was suspended on this charge, but he was taxed $5 and costs for being drunk. Joseph Outlaw, colored, paid the costs for violating the hitching ordinance and judgment was suspended on a charge of interfering with an officer.

Mary Clemmons, colored, contributed a fine of $10 and costs on being found guilty on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. Five ordinary drunks contributed the usual amounts in fines and costs.

ATHLETICS AT Y. M. C. A.

Some of the Contests on Docket for the Present Week.

Despite the intense heat of the past few weeks, the interest in the various athletic features at the Y. M. C. A., and especially the indoor baseball, is increasing. Last week the Seniors won from the Clams and the Sand Fiddlers from the Crabs. During this week two more games will be played, the Crabs playing the Seniors tonight and the Sand Fiddlers will play the Clams Thursday night. While at present the Seniors occupy first place, the Sand Fiddlers are but one game behind and are determined to play hard to tie the other team.

The younger boys' indoor league is also still in progress. Three games will be played this week, one this morning and the others on Thursday and Saturday mornings.

This week will also see the close of the second series in the Sunday School baseball league. Thursday at 3:30 on the Parsley diamond at Hill-ton the Fifth Street Methodists will play the St. Andrews' Presbyterians. Friday the last game of the series will be played between the Episcopalians and the Presbyterians. This will close up the series and a championship series of three games will be played between the Fifth Street Methodists, who won the first series, and the winners of the present series. The victorious team will be awarded a pennant given by Mr. Parsley.

The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these games.

MRS. LUCY HUSTON DEAD.

Aged Lady Passed Away Last Night—Funeral This Afternoon.

Friends will learn with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Lucy E. Huston, relict of the late Maxwell Huston, which occurred last night at 11 o'clock, at the family residence, No. 420 Grace street. Mrs. Huston, who was 83 years old, had been an invalid for the past three years, and for the past three months she had been sinking rapidly. The end was not unexpected.

Mrs. Huston is survived by three children—Mrs. Mary Baughm, of this city; Mrs. Henry Burkheimer, formerly of Wilmington, but now living in Greensboro, and Dr. William M. Huston, of Philadelphia, all of whom will be sympathetically remembered in the hour of their great sorrow.

The deceased was a woman of high Christian character and noble and lovable disposition. She was a consistent and devoted member of Grace Methodist church, and up to the time of her illness was a constant attendant at all the services.

The funeral will be held from the residence this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

THIN FOLKS MADE PLUMP

Samose Ideal Flesh Builder, Says Druggist J. Hicks Bunting

Thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. If you are thin, it is because the food you eat is not assimilated and passes through the system without building up the flesh and tissue as it should.

You can readily get plump and rosy by using Samose, a tissue-forming food which when taken with the meals, immediately becomes a flesh-building and life-giving element in the blood. Samose builds up the system, puts flesh on the bones, brings back the glow of health to the pallid cheek and removes the tired and languid feeling which is the result of exhaustion and low vitality.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., are introducing Samose to their customers and recommend it highly. They give the best proof of their belief that Samose will do all that is claimed for it by offering to refund the money if it fails to increase the weight and restore good health.

NOVEL EUROPEAN TOUR

Three Young Wilmingtonians In Party That Is to Travel Through Continent on Bicycles—Will be Gone Several Months

Three Wilmington boys, Messrs. Alex Sprunt and W. H. Sprunt, Jr., sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sprunt, and Mr. Emmett Bellamy, son of Hon. and Mrs. Jno. D. Bellamy, are members of a party of about 12 Davidson College boys who sailed from Philadelphia Friday on the Red Star liner Marquette, for Antwerp, from which port they will start on a bicycle tour through the heart of Europe. Returning they will sail from Bremen on the North German Lloyd steamer "Rheda," August 24th, for New York.

The tour is a unique one and has many features which commend it and promise to make it far more interesting than the ordinary cut and dried sort of tour. All travel, with the exception of that by water, will be done on bicycles, and other than the fact that they will start from Antwerp and sail from Bremen on the return, the members of the party themselves do not know what routes will be followed. The tour has been aptly spoken of as a genuine go-where-you-please-and-stop-where-you-want-to trip.

The tour is under the direction of Dr. Thos. W. Lingle, of the Davidson faculty, who is thoroughly familiar with several different foreign languages, and who is an experienced tourist.

Several possible routes have been considered but nothing definite will be mapped out ahead. It is the intention of those in the party to map out their route as they go along, so as to include an opportunity to visit the world's finest cities, see much of the most beautiful scenery and visit many of the historic countries. It is thought that much of the time will be spent in German speaking lands, with glimpses of English, French, Flemish and Italian sections. Holland, also, will probably be visited.

Aside from the viewpoint of pleasure the trip offers excellent educational features and it will doubtless be both enjoyable and beneficial to the young men.

Evans, president of the Southern National Bank and the Atlantic Banking & Trust Co., and Fred W. Dick, vice president of the People's Savings Bank, and Mr. J. V. Grainger, vice president of the Merchants National Bank, and possibly one or two other local bankers expect to leave Wednesday morning to attend the convention. Mr. J. C. Braswell, of Rocky Mount, is president of the association and the vice presidents, besides Mr. Cooper, are Messrs. Leake S. Covington, of Rockingham, and Geo. A. Holderness, of Tarboro. Mr. William A. Hunt, of Henderson, is secretary and treasurer, which office he has held for a number of years.

MORE TALK OF C. & O.

Latest is That Road Will Build From Greensboro to Southport.

The following special to yesterday's Charlotte Observer will be read with deep interest in this city and section: "Southern Pines, June 23.—Moore county is figuring on another railroad. Engineers have been here this week looking over the ground, with a project in hand for a line to connect Greensboro and Southport with a feeder from the Chesapeake and Ohio and the Norfolk and Western, giving through outlet from Chicago to the coast at the mouth of the Cape Fear, and from the Potomac and Susquehanna to the same Carolina points.

"The line is to come by way of Greensboro, Carthage, Southern Pines, Raeford, Lumberton, and to Southport. The talk is of substantial construction, that the road may handle heavy traffic in big volume."

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy.

MEETING HERE THIS YEAR

Annual Gathering of North Carolina Postmasters' Association

The North Carolina Postmasters' Association, composed of the first, second and third-class postmasters of the State, and also the fourth-class postmasters which latter body might be termed an auxiliary organization within the regular organization, will hold its annual meeting this year at Wilmington, with Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace, of this city, as the host postmaster.

Wilmington was selected for the place of meeting at the annual meeting in Asheville last September. The date of the 1912 meeting has not yet been decided upon, but will be held probably in the latter part of August or the first part of September, as at that time the visiting postmasters could be entertained at Wrightsville Beach with much more comfort than if they would come during the rush season. It is expected that from 150 to 200 postmasters will attend the convention.

The meetings are of a business nature and many matters of interest to the postal service are discussed. Generally the postmasters make important recommendations on subjects pertinent to the welfare and improvement of the service and also the employees of the postal department.

The officers of the North Carolina Postmasters' Association are W. W. Rollins, Asheville, president; S. Arthur White, Mebane, secretary-treasurer; vice-presidents, J. B. Spence, Charlotte; Thomas Green, Waynesville, and G. F. Conrad, Lexington. It is expected that the date of the meeting will be decided upon during the next month.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN MISSION.

Handsome Church Building Being Erected at Wrightsboro.

A handsome brick and stone building is in course of construction at Wrightsboro and when completed will be used as a mission for the First Presbyterian church, of this city. The money for the structure was donated by an elder of the First Presbyterian church, whose name at his own request, has not been made public. The building has been in course of construction for some time and it is thought that it will be completed by another month.

The church is of brick with stone trimming and a coping of granite topping the brick walls, while the upper portion and roof will be of frame work. It is understood that the structure will cost from $2,000 to $2,500 by the time it is completed.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell, associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be in active charge of the mission, and will conduct services there each week, and Dr. John Thomas assistant superintendent of health, will be superintendent of the Sunday School. The mission at Wrightsboro is one of several conducted by the First Presbyterian church, and it is a most thriving condition. The new building will be a great aid to the work being carried on.

Formal Transfer of Property

A deed was filed for record at the Court House yesterday afternoon transferring from Geo. R. French & Son to the Southern National Bank, for a consideration said to be about $70,000, the two lots at the southeast corner of Front and Princess streets, one occupied by Shrier & Solomon and the other by Mr. R. C. DeRosset. The property has a frontage on Front street of 42 feet and on Princess street of 66 feet. It is considered one of the most valuable pieces of realty in the city. The purpose of the bank, it is said, is to build on the property a handsome home, but not in the immediate future.

to help us pick a man who can.

back."

The big stop will be made today at Baltimore. The next station is the Fourth of July.

That gay and careless garment of English origin, known familiarly as the blazer, is really black.

Col. Bryan's "appeal for harmony"
was a signal for a row. His condition
for peace was for a surrender to him.
Too bad!

Booker T. might be a dark horse for Vice President on the Progressive party's ticket headed by T. R. for President.

In the meantime Harry Thaw is trying to get turned loose and Senator Lorimer is trying to keep from being turned loose.

What has become of the old-fashioned voter who thought there was something in the old Republican slogan
about "The Pull Dinner Pail?"

A Chicago dispatch says: "The Roosevelt men have appealed to Taft."
That's different from trying to knock him through the ropes. They are now putting up their paws.

"Consistency, thou art a jewel."
Since it is rare and only few possess it, Col. Roosevelt has an excuse for being always inconsistent. He may decide to be simply an ex-President and ex-
Third Term.

Taft and Sherman. That's the same old ticket. It means the same old standpat party which backs special interests and exploits the people in their behalf. It has the same old candidate and the same old earmarks.

When the insurgents began to talk about bolting, Governor Hadley, of Missouri, lit out for home without saying how he stands on the question of organizing a Progressive party. In fact, he doesn't stand. He has run.

Mr. Dooley advises that nobody need quit working because the Nation is doomed to the fate of Rome. He says
keep on working and quit worrying
over the future. We would say, cheer up. The Democrats will soon be in charge.

Our idea of an optimist is Colonel Roosevelt who says: "My friends, my hat is in the ring and will be in stronger than ever." It takes Teddy a long time to find out that there's nothing in his hat even though it might be in the ring.

President Taft may "mean well feel-ly" but he meant business when he went in the ring after that old hat.
His good nature gave way to his pug-nacity and he landed like a heavyweight. The colonel will have to revise his opinion of a fat man.

Previous to the National Republican convention Roosevelt declared that he had no idea of bolting. He must have meant that at the time he spoke only.
He has bolted since then, unless he is going to charge that Taft is the bolter. He will have to do that to prove his consistency.

It is reported that Colonel Roosevelt breakfasted on four soft-boiled
eggs, four lamb chops, two wheat
cakes, one heaping dish of beef blood
and two cups of coffee, preceded by two grapefruits and interspersed with two glasses of water. A man who can eat a breakfast like that in June is fit
to be President at least eight times.
—Chester (Pa.) Republican.

THE COUNTRY IS PROGRESSIVE.

Whatever is meant by the term
"progressive" as now used in a political sense, that is what the country seems to be from Maine to Texas. We rather think "progressive" spells Democracy and really that is what is meant by the universal trend in this country towards larger powers for the people. That is the Democratic idea as expounded by Thomas Jefferson, and while we have all recognized Jeffersonianism as meaning the complete sovereignty of the people, we really have not been practicing it.

The signs of the times point to the fact that the country has simply been swept by a tide of Jeffersonianism.
It really startles some of our old line
Democrats, but when we reason with ourselves we will drift along with the tide and confess that we have not been as Jeffersonian as we have professed. A great many may shy at the term "progressive" but it is only a collateral term that has been worked in by the politicians. As a matter of fact, the Democratic party was progressive all along, and the heaven of
it has gotten into the Republican dough.

A Congressional investigation would prove that about 75 per cent of the Republicans of the country are "progressive" and that they do not know that it is another term for Democracy.
However, the "progressive Republicans" are not Democrats, but merely Democratic. When they drift entirely on the Democratic shore they will break up and be Democrats. When they do that they will be down on the third term idea. We must all admit that we are in the throes of a political revolution. It is beating fiercely about the foundation of Republicanism and Hamiltonianism, while this upheaval means only that Jeffersonianism is coming into its own. The drift from the Republican party is lodging right against the firm foundation laid by Thomas Jefferson. The meaning of it all is that the politics of the country are getting closer to the people.

The Republican party, with its privileges for the few and its taxes for the many, no longer meets with the approval of the masses who are made to pay the freight. Republicans may adhere to the spirit of Lincoln, but it isn't with them at all. Lincoln would not know the Republican party if he were to return to earth in this day of its perturbation and disintegration.
Special privilege has killed Republicanism as dead as Hector. It has been carried too far, and the radicals and standpatters have doomed their party by stiffening their necks against the demand of the people for cessation of a policy which taxes families from the cradle to the grave. "Progressiveism" in the Republican party means simply a great popular revolt against being made the hewers of stone and the drawers of water for the beneficiaries of the Republican doctrine of protection—a system for making the few rich at the expense of the many.

It makes no difference how conservative we may think we are, the entire country is progressive. Democrats are progressive and Republicans
are progressive to the point of disrupting their party. The movement is earnest, for its zealots are willing to break the political affiliation of a lifetime. They are willing to throw down the idols of sentiment and abandon traditions that they looked upon as sacred. Do the Democrats who meet at Baltimore today read the signs of the times? If they do they will nominate a man who will sweep this progressive country. They ought to know the man who appeals to the great mass which is looking for a President like Woodrow Wilson. We rather think the Baltimore convention will read aright the signs of the times.

TAFT'S VICTORY TEMPORARY.

President Taft's victory at Chicago,
equivocal or otherwise, was only a triumph over the chaos of Republicanism. His victory is only temporary.
It will last only till the 5th of next November. Then he will go down with the Titanic of protectionism and special privilege. According to the methods of himself and his generals at Chicago, they have again fastened standpatism around the neck of the Republican party and it will drag it to the fathomless bottom.

What has ripped open the seams of the Republican ship has been the high tariff rock. President Taft steered head-on against the rock, and he has set out for another bump against a destroying force that stands in the way of his success in November. During his administration he held the ship in line straight for a terrific compact with overwhelming public sentiment, and he continues to steer in the same direction with the breakers hard ahead. November is the time for his grounding on the reef.

President Taft, in a way, has secured another nomination from the Republican party. His nomination means that his administration has been endorsed—endorsed by a faction of the convention at Chicago. The margin of his endorsement was narrow, but
the protest against it is enormous.
The Republican party, as represented
at that convention, failed to repudiate itself by repudiating Taft. It stood pat with him, and he has succeeded in committing it again to protection under regulation by the tariff board.
That is Republicanism pure and simple, and it means the same old Republican party, with the same old fight

for special privilege and with the consent of the tariff board—a commission to study protection and recommend as much of it as the patience of the people will stand.

The protest against standpatism
was taking its natural course when it was drifting towards LaFollette and Cummins. They hewed the way and when it was open for a run, Roosevelt dashed in and the progressives swept along at his heels. He stampeded pro-gressivism. It got away from its leaders and anchored to third termism.
Republican progressivism went down
with third termism, but it will leave third termism at the bottom while progressivism will float to the top and be all that is saved of the wreck. Taft has won a victory of a kind—a victory over third termism. That is all. The Republican host is divided, and he cannot hope to win the Presidency again. Aye, he came very nearly letting third termism beat him in the convention, and it was only by a close rub that he saved standpatism. Had the third term issue not been a force detering some Republicans, he never would have won even a divided victory, doubtless to third termism.

The President will have against him
a third term candidate for President.
Roosevelt has accepted a nomination
from the rebellious progressives and he will be followed by a great Republican host. The President will have against him a Democratic candidate
to be named this week at Baltimore.
If the Democrats name the wrong
man, third termism will again become
a dangerous factor in the campaign.
The Democratic nominee who will appear to the country will beat both third termism and standpatism. A Democratic candidate who will have a divided party supporting him, will be only a stepping stone for Roosevelt to mount to the eminence of a third term, a Diazian regime to end—when?

THIRD TERMISM AN ISSUE

President Taft's nomination at Chicago, possibly, has not eliminated
third termism as an issue in this campaign. It has caused a formidable revolt in the Republican party and the third term is still in the running till
he gets cold feet.

The Roosevelt delegates have bolted
and organized the Progressive party.
It was duly christened in Chicago on Sunday after having previously tendered a nomination to Col. Roosevelt.
He accepted the nomination on the condition that a regular party should be organized for the purpose of holding a National convention some time in August. The nucleus of an organization has been effected and the delegates are to return to their States and sound public sentiment. If they find that it is strong, a convention is to be called to nominate a President.
The Colonel accepted the nomination
or declared that he would aid in nominating someone else if the people prefer.

It was a solemn Sunday conclave
which rallied around Teddy and it adopted the bandana as its battle flag.
The Colonel took to it and waved a red bandana at his admirers. It may be a farewell wave and it may not.
It may be a way that the Rough Rider
has of letting himself down easy on the bumpy. If public sentiment is tremendous the bandana will continue to wave. If it is negligible, the Colonel will have the excuse of saying that the time is not ripe for a nomination
and he will content himself with agitating and funeralizing the third term.

Some think no convention of the Progressive party will ever be held,
and that in a little time the Colonel will have as cold feet as he had been wading around at the North Pole. We shall see.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The country may expect a number of improvements in the steam roller the coming year, as a number of manufacturers were present in Chicago to inspect the working of the Taft machine
—the most perfect thing of the kind
the world has ever seen.—Greensboro News.

And in the meantime those North Carolina patronage-chasers who crawled on the Roosevelt bandwagon when they thought it was headed somewhere would give a good price for the rental of a kicking machine for a short while. They feel that they badly needed the use of one.—Raleigh Times.

"Mr. Roosevelt," wrote his biographer in 1904, "has a morbid dread of doing anything to split the Republican party," but he has bravely got over such craven fears. He did not want to break up the Republican party so long as he could keep his foot upon its neck, but if he can no longer use it to feed his lust for power, he is ready to dash it to pieces without a moment's compunction. So far as Theodore Roosevelt is concerned, the Republican party has ceased to exist. He flouts its organized authority. He calls upon his followers to leave it and spurn it. For himself, he declares that he is "through" with it. A bolt, a rump convention, a new party—anything to have his mad way, Roosevelt is now ready for. Long the idol of his party, long its sworn devotee, he is today willing to make it a whole burnt offering on the altar of his insane ambition. If he could carry nine-tenths of his followers with him
in a bolt, a bolt there would undoubtedly be—but there's the rub. It is stated that he could not take more than 200 delegates with him out of the convention, and a beggarly bolt of such proportions would leave him looking ridiculous—a would-be party-

smasher deserted by his own adher-ents. Caesar crosses the Rubicon, but without his legions.—New York Post.

It is to be inferred from the talk
at the meeting of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association of North Carolina, that the child labor agitator is again preparing to disturb the pleasant and altogether satisfactory relations that exist and that have existed
for sometime past, between the cotton mill owners and the operatives in this State. The mill men and their have a more satisfactory child labor law than North Carolina. It was framed after the interests of the mill
operatives themselves were consulted.
In fact, the law as it stands, is mainly suggestive of the desires of the operatives, their suggestions having been collected by the mill men and having been concurred in with some modifications and with but few exceptions.
Under this law mill conditions in North Carolina have been running smoothly and without friction. It had been hoped that there would be no
further efforts to disturb these pleasant relations between employers and employees and that for a season, at least, the cotton mill men and the cotton mill industry would be free from the unsettling influences of the labor
agitator.—Charlotte Observer.

DOWN WITH THE BOSSES

Wilmington, N. C., June 24, 1912.
Editor Morning Star, City.

Dear Sir:—I noticed in your yesterday's issue that some anti-Taft delegates to bribe some colored Taft delegates. All honor to the men who would not sell their honor. I don't think Mr. Roosevelt would have countenanced anything of this kind. I believe he is one of the best men we have and if he runs on the independent ticket I expect to vote for him,
and I hope all others will study the matter carefully and vote for whoever they wish, regardless of what political bosses say. There are good men and bad men in all parties and in all times, and a man should be respected for his character and be only judged by the deeds he has done regardless of race or color. We only go through life
once, so let us be as kind to all others
and look for good in each of them, and speak of it, and when they hear of it
it will do them good and the reflex
action on us does us good.

Yours truly,
D. L. GORE.

today added to the toll of dead in last night's accident at Eagle Park, Grand Island, when 50 feet of an excursion dock collapsed and dropped 100 persons into the Niagara river. The sem-darkness, the ten-mile current of the

swiftness of it all served to cover up for a time the full extent of the castastrophe. Up to tonight 17 bodies had been recovered and identified and many more were known to be at the park and had not yet been accounted county, is announced. Mr. Heath is a well-to-do farmer of middle age and Mrs. Heath is some years younger than her husband. The numerous members of the Heath household are

of all ages and sizes, and comprise

of them robust and healthy.

WOOTEN FOR SHERIFF

Elizabethtown, N. C., June 24.—His many friends will be pleased to know that ex-Sheriff Wooten will be a candidate for sheriff this year, and while we would not underestimate the strong qualities in the several other aspirants
for the place, our popular ex-sheriff's winning disposition as an official or in private life are too well-known in old Bladen to allow his candidacy to lack in enthusiastic support. He won votes in days when Bladen Democracy needed votes. He gave his best attention to the duties of the office when compensation made the place far less desirable than now. As an officer, he reflected the qualities that make up the man and performed the most disagreeable duties with courtesy and promptness. He is thoroughly competent and familiar with the duties of sheriff and that he would be faithful to every duty of the office, the many citizens
who know him best and his past record emphatically guarantee. It would not be Sheriff Wooten if his duties
were not performed in his jovial and genial manner.

When Sheriff Wooten first ran for the office in the dark days of fusion,
he carried a town toward him but lost
with other Democrats in the county.
He being appointed on the failure of his opponent making bond. Two years later he was elected by a good majority
when several of the Democrats lost.
The last time he was our nominee, he led the ticket and received the biggest majority he has ever had. He has been given a merited place in the confidence of the people. Ex-Sheriff Wooten gives me authority to say that he will positively be a candidate this year and that he will highly appreciate the assistance of any. He says the happiest work of his life was when duty took him over old Bladen
and meeting the many citizens with whom he created a friendship which will forever be a joy to him. He says he will have to rely on many of his old friends for support, so boys let's get busy and hurrah for S. G. Wooten for sheriff. DEMOCRATS.

AFRAID OF THAW

Evelyn Nesbitt Fears Husband Will Kill Her

White Plains, N. Y., June 24.—Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw still fears that if her husband gets out of Mattawan he will attempt her life, she testified today at the hearing of Harry K. Thaw's application for release from the asylum on the contention that he is now sane.

"I am afraid that if Thaw is released
he will kill me as he has threatened to do," she volunteered during cross examination by counsel for Thaw.
Mr. Thaw seemed excited when she made this declaration, but Thaw put
a fan up to his face and with a smile
turned to his mother and whispered
to her something which made her smile.

Mrs. Thaw declared she was an unwilling witness.

"I have always wanted to have my marriage annulled and get out of this business," she said. She is being paid $500 a month by Thaw.
Dr. Charles G. Wagner, head of the State hospital for the insane at Binghamton, testified that Thaw had told him in the Tombs in 1906 shortly after the shooting of Stanford White, that he had not meant to kill White, but that "Providence had intervened and had taken the matter in hand."

Thomas L. Flattery and Llewellyn
Gilliland, schoolmates of Thaw's at Wooster University, testified that Thaw's actions while there were such as to indicate rationality.

ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

Suspended in Midair, 65 Feet Above
Fayetteville, N. C.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 24.—The Fayetteville Observer this afternoon
says:

Mr. Spivey Bullard, of Roseboro,
Sampson county, came to Fayetteville
on a noon train Saturday, and after getting off the cars at the station wandered to the Cape Fear river in the lower part of the city. Mr. Bullard's wife died recently, and the blow has had a very depressing effect upon him; in fact, he has been partially bereft of reason. He walked out on the iron bridge which spans the river and took up the idea of committing suicide. Accordingly, he climbed down and hung by his hands to an iron rod.
But while suspended in midair, 65
feet above the river, the thought of his two children at home suddenly flashed
into his mind, and he called for help.
Passersby climbed down and rescued him from his perilous position. After he had been rescued he wandered
across to the east side of the river,
where Sheriff McGeachy found him
and took him to the ward hospital of the jail. The poor man was dreadfully distressed, and wept like a child.
Friends came to the city yesterday
and carried him to his home.

CARPENTIER DISQUALIFIED.

Klaus Gets Decision Over French Middleweight Champion

Dieppe, France, June 24.—Georges
Carpentier, the middleweight champion of France and England, was disqualified in the 19th round of his fight with Frank Klaus, the Pittsburgh middleweight here today. Both men used rough tactics, and Klaus worked his elbows into the Frenchman's face and body in the clinches. In the 19th Carpentier's manager, believing that Klaus had struck the Frenchman a foul blow on the chin with his elbow,
jumped into the ring and threw up the sponge. Carpentier protested that he was able and willing to finish, but owing to the interference of his manager the referee disqualified Carpentier.

Sante Fe, N. M., June 24.—There will be no interference with the Johnson-Flynn battle for the world's heavyweight championship at Las Vegas on July 4th, by Governor McDonald, provided the county and city authorities
"enforce strictly the State laws" for suppression of public gambling.

Goldsboro, N. WANTS MONEY FOR ARMY.

President Taft Urges Appropriation for Joint Maneuvers.

Washington, D. C., June 24.—President Taft today sent a special message to Congress recommending the immediate appropriation of $1,500,000 for the use of the War Department in joint maneuvers of the regular army and the National Guard. The President also asked the appropriation of $167,000 for urgent necessities of the War Department. Both items were in the general army appropriation bill which the President vetoed.

The message was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs, after Chairman Hay indicated that action would be taken to enable the War Department and the National Guard to go ahead with plans for the maneuvers. The first will be at Manassas, Va., beginning July 5.

It is stated at the War Department that the projected maneuvers will be so much larger than anything of the kind ever attempted before in this country that they may fairly claim to equal in extent the annual maneuvers of the European military powers.

According to plans announced today among the State organizations which are to participate in the joint maneuvers with the regular army are: Mount Gretna, Pa., July 5, August 3; Pennsylvania, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia, Annapolis, Md., July 6, August 4; Alabama, North Carolina, New Jersey, Tennessee, Florida, Georgia and Kentucky, August 5 to 16 is the date set at joint coast defense exercises of the North Carolina military and regulars.

It is planned to make the welcome non-partisan, as Albanyites generally are of the opinion that President Taft's renomination was due in no small measure to their fellow citizen's efforts.

FIGHT BATTLE IN BROADWAY.

Police Exchange Shots With Alleged Burglars In Automobile.

New York, June 24.—Police shots were exchanged between police detectives and four alleged robbers in lower Broadway early today, as the latter were making off in an automobile with $10,000 worth of feathers and plumes taken from the African Feather Company's building. No one was wounded, but the detectives succeeded in halting the automobile in front of Grace church, and arresting the four men.

The police had received advance information that an attempt was to be made to rob the feather store, and detectives, who were stationed in the vicinity, discovered the men leaving the building with suit cases and bundles.

Entrance had been effected boldly by blowing a hole through the wall of the adjoining building with dynamite. In police court the prisoners were held without bail. They gave their names as Morris Fishman, Joseph Goldstein, Harry Cohen and Joseph Earle.

This is the fifth arrest in burglaries of this kind made by Capt. Dominick Henry's men in the last month. In several of the other cases the burglars used an automobile in their operations.

The precinct is full of left buildings, and is a tempting one for burglars, especially on Saturday night and Sunday morning.

BARACA PHILATHEAS MEET.

Every State Represented in Convention at Norfolk, Va.

Norfolk, Va., June 24.—The world-wide Baraca Philathea Union began the business session of its 1912 convention in two divisions, the Baracas meeting in the Cumberland M. E. church, South, and the Philatheas in Free Mason Street Baptist church.

The two churches are but a block away and the Baracas concluding their initial business session at noon, marched in a body to join the Philatheas in a welcome service led by Rev. Dr. W. W. Hamilton, of Lynchburg, Va.

Practically every State in the Union is represented in the two divisions of the convention which General Secretary Luther C. Reynolds, of Kentucky, today pronounced to be the smoothest with the most businesslike local arrangements of any yet held.

MISS JOANNA ROBINSON.

Death of Estimable Lady With Large Family Connections.

(Fayetteville Observer, June 24.) Miss Joanna Robinson died at her home on Monticello Heights Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, after a long period of painful sickness. Miss Robinson, who was daughter of the late Thomas Jefferson and Sarah Stark Robinson, was a gentle Christian woman, in whom was no guile, and she has gone to the home of the saints.

Of the immediate family she is survived by three sisters, Misses Nannie and Lizzie Robinson, of this city, and Mrs. Lloyd Cromartie, of Bladen county, and by one brother, Mr. E. M. Robinson, of Virginia. The funeral services will be conducted from St. John's Episcopal church this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

AVIATOR FATALLY HURT.

Carl L. Hamilton Fell at Army Aviation School.

Washington, June 24.—C. L. Hamilton, an instructor at the United States Army Aviation School, College Park, Maryland, was perhaps fatally injured this evening in an airplane accident. Hamilton was flying alone in a biplane and was at a height of 100 feet when the machine suddenly fell to the ground and was smashed to pieces. The aviator was pinned beneath the wreckage, but was quickly extricated by signal corps officers stationed at the school. He was found to be badly injured and was hurried to a hospital, where it was said his injuries might prove fatal.

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty Seekers.

Lydia says: "I've tried most everything for my freckles, but can't lose them. What do you suggest?" See answer to "Stella." The treatment suggested I've never known to fail in any case of freckles or other cutaneous blemish.

P. J. K. asks: "Is there anything better than massage to remove wrinkles?" Too much massaging may aggravate a wrinkled condition, tending to soften and loosen the tissue. I advise bathing the face in an astringent lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered salolite in a half pint witch hazel. This is remarkably effective.

Stella writes: "My complexion is horribly muddy. What shall I do for it?" Get an ounce of mercurized wax at your drugist's. Apply this nightly like you'd use cold cream, washing it off mornings. This will cause the offensive cuticle gradually to make way, by a process of gentle absorption, for the clear, velvety, healthy-hued skin underneath.—Woman's Realm.

AT THE BIJOU Today.

As story walls cannot keep love out, why, so the weather, even though it makes ugly grimaces, cannot keep the people away from the New Bijou. Hence, yesterday, in spite of the elements, was a big one for this delightful place. Of course, there is a reason, and it is found in the rare pleasure that the Bijou affords and the solid comfort which it provides its patrons. The Bijou is the cool spot in the hottest weather and the snug corner on otherwise disagreeable days.

The bill yesterday was an especially bright one and quickly banished that drear feeling from the hearts of all who went to the amusement palace. Today the Bijou has another swell offering and one not only of great brightness but of powerful charm. A really wonderful Pathe film is a star today. It is "Jane Shore," and it harks back to old times, in the days of witchcraft, and it is especially fascinating for that particular reason. It vividly sets forth a stirring tale during the reign of one of England's Kings. It is Pathe's very best, and it comes direct from factory to the Bijou. A swell Biograph is also a star. It is "Lena and the Geese," and it tells such an interesting story as those found in the fairy tale books of old. It is a film out of the ordinary, and will immensely please. It is a great film for the young folks to see. The children will all enjoy it.

There are other big films on today at the Bijou, besides these two stars, while new and merry music will greet the ear.

At The Grand

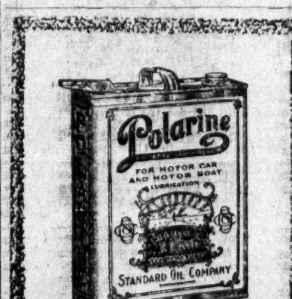

Notwithstanding the inclement weather yesterday afternoon, and evening, the Grand was crowded "from pit to dome" all day. The treats served up there are a temptation to while away an hour even when the elements make it more agreeable to stay indoors. Perfect ventilation and regulation of heat and cold, together with the excellent orchestra, "make the Grand par excellence in the entertainment line." In Wilmington, a fact that its patrons are being brought to realize more each day. For today the top-line will be an Essanay production, "Broncho Billy's Gratitude," one of the best, most absorbing Western dramas ever released. It stars Mr. Anderson in his world-famous character creation, and has a powerful plot strikingly developed and grippingly portrayed. This is decidedly one of the hits of the season, and should not be missed. After this will come two more excellent pictures dealing with the various sides of life, and today's programme is calculated to cater to the whims of everyone.

New York, June 24.—In an automobile collision here tonight Alfred L. Lincoln, of Seligman, aged 46, a retired banker and youngest brother of Isaac N. Seligman, the well known banker, was killed almost instantly. His secretary, Morris Rainger, and his chauffeur, Harry Larkin, were injured, though not seriously. Mr. Seligman and his secretary were thrown from the machine. The banker's skull was crushed.

THE CONGRESSIONAL PRIMARY.

Hon. H. L. Godwin's Majority 3,047.

Vote by Counties.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 24.—In accordance with the rules for the Congressional primary held in the Sixth District, June 18th, the district Congressional Committee met in this city at noon to canvass the returns of said primary, declare the nominee and transact such other business as was necessary in connection therewith. The following members were present: George B. McLeod, of Robeson; J. R. Williamson, of Columbus; J. C. Clifford, of Harnett, (holding proxy for R. G. Taylor); George McNeill, of Cumberland, and E. F. McCulloch, of Bladen. The members not present were W. E. Springer, of New Hanover, and Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick. The absent members, however, sent the certified returns from their respective counties to the secretary of the committee who presented them to the committee. Secretary Geo. B. McLeod, in the absence of Chairman Bellamy, called the meeting to order and on motion he was made chairman and Mr. J. C. Clifford, secretary. The returns from the seven counties in the district were then canvassed and showed the following as the result of the primary.

Cumberland—H. L. Godwin received 553 votes; N. A. Sinclair 429. Executive committee members selected, Geo. McNeill, chairman; E. F. McCulloch, 230; committeeman, A. Elmore Powell.

Harnett—Godwin, 704; Sinclair 23; committeeman, J. C. Clifford. Robeson—Godwin, 1,080; Sinclair, 365; committeeman, B. O. Townsend. Bladen—Godwin 329; Sinclair 174; committeeman, J. B. Clark.

New Hanover—Godwin, 569; Sinclair, 51; committeeman, Woodus Kellum.

Brunswick—Godwin, 259; Sinclair, 109; committeeman, Peter Rourke. Total vote—Godwin, 4,428; Sinclair, 1,331; majority for Godwin, 3,047.

In Brunswick county there was a big fight for committeeman between Mr. George H. Bellamy and Mr. Rourke, the latter winning by a vote of 177 to 161.

The committee then took up the matter of the expenses of holding the primary. It was decided to pay the pollholders and registrars $1 each and the members of the canvassing boards an additional $2 and mileage at the rate of five cents a mile each way. The secretary, Mr. George B. McLeod, was instructed to ascertain from the several county chairmen the names of the pollholders, registrars and members of the canvassing board and pay them at the rates above stated. If the $500 deposited by the two candidates at the time of the nomination of their candidacy is not sufficient to meet all expenses, he is authorized and directed to assess the two candidates, H. L. Godwin and N. A. Sinclair, equally for such deficit. It was moved that the chairman and secretary be authorized and directed to issue a certificate certifying the nomination of H. L. Godwin to the chairman of the State Executive Committee, and to also forward a copy of said certificate to Hon. H. L. Godwin.

port of one recognized candidate now contesting the nomination.

The Indiana delegation at its meeting last night renewed alliance to Governor Marshall. Senator Shively will present his name to the convention Thursday and it will probably be seconded from within the delegation.

"The Marshall for President Club" reached Baltimore this afternoon equipped with a band and with paper roosters attached to the hats of the 200 or more marchers. For a time Governor Marshall's candidacy held the undivided attention of the crowds on the street and in the hotel lobbies.

The New York Gaynor Club and the Italian Gaynor Club, of New York, arrived with big delegations today, and were met by the Maryland Gaynor club. The combination has headquarters, bands and parades to boost the candidacy of the New York mayor, notwithstanding the fact that there is yet no certainty his name will be presented.

Governor Burke, who is to receive the 10 votes from that State on the first ballot, has thus far figured but little in the convention activities. He is more nearly the typical "dark horse" than the other candidates in the "second line" whose friends are sparing no device of advertising to embellish their virtues to the world.

Mr. Bryan's attention was called late tonight to the report that at his conference today with Judge Parker he had passed the speech which the New York jurist had prepared to deliver as temporary chairman of the convention. Mr. Bryan said: "I have not thought it proper to discuss with anybody what Mr. Parker said to me, or what I said to him, but in answer to rumor that I was being circled by the press, I feel justified in saying that he never read a single sentence of his speech or showed me any manuscript. He referred in a very general way to what he intended to say, but what he said only referred to two or three subjects and no one could say whether the speech would be acceptable or not. A very small part of the interview was spent on the question of what Mr. Parker would say. It cut no figure in either his decision or mine."

All through today and far into the evening a constant stream of visiting delegates and friends ebbed and flowed through the narrow confines of W. J. Bryan's rooms to give greeting or pass some word of political moment with the Nebraska leader.

Whenever some enthusiastic delegate informed Mr. Bryan that the Presidential nomination awaited him, if he would but take it, the Nebraska leader would quickly reply: "I have got something more important right now."

Wilson Boomers Active.

New York, June 24.—Wilson boomers to the number of 400 from all sections of the State, attended a mass meeting at Cooper Union tonight and listened to speeches favoring the candidacy of Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, for the Democratic nomination at the Baltimore convention. After the meeting the boomers boarded a train for Baltimore to continue their campaign there. What the speakers declared to be the progressivism of the New Jersey Governor was the key note of each address. The split in the Republican party at Chicago was frequently referred to. Mention of Governor Wilson's name provoked prolonged applause, repeatedly. The mass meeting was arranged by the New York State Wilson conference. Every county was represented.

The boomers hired a band and marched behind it from the hotel where they had established headquarters to Cooper Union, each county delegation carrying a banner with the inscription: "Wilson and Win."

Former Public Service Commissioner Edward M. Bassett, of Kings, was chairman.

Resolutions were adopted "demanding the nomination" of Governor Wilson, and a committee of 150 was appointed to attend the convention, to "express" to the delegates there assembled the sentiment and extent of the Wilson sentiment throughout the State.

WILL SUPPORT PARKER

Kentucky Delegation Votes to Sustain Committee—Guffey Ousted

Baltimore, June 24.—The Kentucky delegation at its caucus today decided to support the choice of the National Committee for temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention. Nineteen of the delegates voted for this action, including Governor McCreary, chairman of the delegation. There were seven negative votes including that of Senator-elect Ollie M. James, who had himself been mentioned as a candidate against Judge Alton B. Parker for the temporary chairmanship.

Madison, Wis., June 24.—Senator La Follette's defeat in the Chicago convention was attributed by Governor F. E. McGovern today to the "mismanagement" of his campaign—a mismanagement that was well nigh criminal.

The Governor said that Walter L. Houser, La Follette's campaign manager, is "responsible for the election of Senator Root and also for the whole cavalcade of calamities that followed."

Governor McGovern, in a long statement in justification of his candidacy for temporary chairman of the National convention, presented figures tending to show that had he been named chairman the net Taft strength would have been 480 and the net Roosevelt strength 470.

AMERICANS ROBBED

Other Outrages Charged to Mexican Insurrectos Near Torreon

El Paso, Texas, June 24.—Seventeen Americans in Velardena, 50 miles west of Torreon, and about 300 miles south of the American border, were recently lined up against a barn while a half-dozen drink-crazed rebels brandished six-shooters in their faces and threatened summary execution unless a million dollars ransom was forthcoming. The rebels abandoned the orgy when $3,500 in gold was paid them.

This incident is one of a series of atrocities committed by the Mexican revolutionists under Gens. Campa and Arguemedo in the vicinity of Torreon, was first made public by a party of witnesses to the scenes enacted in the interior who arrived here today. Americans, they said, had feared the consequences of revelation of their plight through official channels and only with the routing of columns under Gens. Campa and Arguemedo after nearly two months of depredations had the facts begun to come to light.

Campa reached the city of Chihuahua with 600 men out of a force of 3,000 men, became involved in a quarrel with Gen. Pascual Orozco and was jailed. Gen. Arguemedo, with 1,500 men, is now ravaging the State of Durango, pursued by the Federal commander, Gen. Blauquet. Arguemedo, it is said, is attempting to cut his way south to form a junction with the Zapatistas in extreme south of Mexico.

At Velardena forty Federal volunteers captured by Gen. Campa were executed in small squads. Rebel officers vied with each other for the privilege of conducting the executions. One of the pitiful sights was the killing of a Federal volunteer about 65 years old by a rebel soldier hardly out of his teens.

FELDER GOT BY.

Passed Through South Carolina—Was Not Arrested.

Columbia, June 23.—Gov. Bleasie's threat to arrest him to the contrary notwithstanding, Thos. B. Felder, of Atlanta, did pass through this State en route to Baltimore. According to reliable information Felder passed through the State on Thursday night, stopped over in Charlotte and then went on North with his wife and child to New York, where Mrs. Felder and child took ship for Europe. Mr. Felder will be at Baltimore in his place among the Georgia delegation when the National Democratic Convention is called together by Chairman Mack.

Before leaving Atlanta Mr. Felder gave out a statement saying that he was going to Baltimore direct through South Carolina, and he did. Governor Bleasie gave out an interview here some time ago threatening to arrest Felder as he passed through this State, and it was called the Georgia delegate by the Governor of South Carolina. In reply Felder said: "Bleasie's threat is mere clap-trap and I will come and go when I please. I will attend to his case in the not distant future."

Governor Bleasie and Thos. B. Felder have been bitter enemies for the past two years and their exhausting of the vocabulary in endeavoring to express their mutual opinions is well known by all South Carolinians. On July 28th, Mr. Felder will be given an opportunity to "attend to the case of Bleasie."

UNDERWOOD HAS MASCOT

Rooster Named "Punch" Furnishes Amusement for Boomers

Baltimore, June 24.—When the Birmingham, Ala., contingent, composed mostly of members of the "Underwood Marching Club," arrived here they carried as a mascot a bantam rooster known as "Punch." "Punch" was the hero of the occasion when the delegation stopped at Washington to greet Mr. Underwood, whom they are booming for the Democratic Presidential nomination. The Marching Club members formed a ring and threw their hats into it. "Punch" madly excited, broke from his custodian, flew about 10 feet in the air and came down on the pile of hats. Then he crowed till perfectly satisfied.

Former Governor Bink of Missouri, who at one time was the possessor of a boom himself, was busy shaking hands in the hotel corridors.

"It will be suicide for the Democratic party to select as temporary chairman any man of reactionary tendency," he said. "On a straight progressive proposition we can win next November."

Mrs. William J. Bryan and her daughter, Grace, who recently became the bride of R. L. Hargreaves, of Lincoln, Neb., held a continuous reception at the Nebraska headquarters. They became acquainted with most of the leaders of the party four years ago when Eastern delegations bound for Denver stopped at Lincoln to pay their respects to Colonel Bryan.

ATTACKED BY MOB

One Man Dying and Five Persons Are Injured

Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., June 24.—The mob is probably dying and five other persons, including a woman, lie seriously injured tonight in the Dobbs Ferry hospital, victims of renewed hostilities this afternoon in the strike declared about 10 days ago at the plant of the National Conduit & Cable Company.

The mob took place after the company announced that it would take back those of the men who wished to resume work at the old wage scale. About 600 accepted the offer and took their places this morning. This afternoon on their way from lunch they were attacked by a mob.

BRYAN LOSES HIS FIGHT ON PARKER

he was not a candidate. In addition, he said, the Kentucky delegation had instructed him that James' name would not be placed before the committee.

Robert Ewing, committeeman from Louisiana, and a Wilson supporter, placed James' name before the committee. Edward F. Goltra, of Missouri, a Clark supporter, explained that he voted for James because he was supporting Clark. This was taken by many to mean that the Bryan forces in the convention would receive some assistance from the Clark supporters when the fight against Parker is taken to the floor tomorrow.

Chairman Norman E. Mack called the adjourned session of the Democratic National Committee to order a few minutes after seven o'clock, the first order of business being further discussion of the sub-committee's recommendation of Judge Parker for temporary chairman. The committee had adjourned early in the afternoon after Committee D. L. Hall, of Nebraska, declared the name of William J. Bryan would be submitted to the convention as a candidate for temporary chairman if the committee ratified the selection of Judge Parker.

Chairman Mack and Mr. Hall, who has been appointed a peace committee to bring Judge Parker and Mr. Bryan together, reported to the committee the failure of their efforts.

The committee balloted on the recommendation of the sub-committee on arrangements, made several days ago, that Mr. Parker be the chairman. This aroused the protest of William J. Bryan and a sub-committee tried in a conference between Mr. Bryan and Judge Parker this afternoon to prevent the promised fight in the convention tomorrow. The sub-committee determined to stand by the sub-committee selections. Progressive Democrats, 22 of them, protested against the selection, 20 supporting Mr. Bryan's champion, Representative James, of Kentucky, and two voting for Senator O'Gorman, who had also been mentioned for the temporary chairmanship by another faction.

The action of the National Committee is expected to result in a bitter factional fight on the floor of the convention, and a struggle for the supremacy by the Bryan Democrats and so-called conservatives, which may affect the Presidential nomination.

The debate over the temporary chairmanship was not prolonged. Representative Talbot, the Maryland member, severely criticized Mr. Bryan and declared that the Nebraska had assumed the role of dictator to the Democratic party.

"I for one," said Mr. Talbot, "do not propose to submit to the dictation of this man or any one man."

Senator Newlands, of Nevada, sitting in the committee with the proxy of his colleague, Senator Sunderland, defended Mr. Bryan. The Senator declared that he did not yield to the dictation of any one man, but that he did not regard Mr. Bryan as a dictator, but as the representative of progressive principles endorsed by the Democratic party.

At the conclusion of the vote on the temporary chairmanship the National Committee took up consideration of the delegates after which the sub-committees were appointed to take up various contests. The largest sub-committee, hearing the contestants from Illinois, was headed by Mayor Harrison, of Chicago.

Contests Decided

Baltimore, June 24.—The National Committee after a long deliberation of the Illinois contests voted to seat the entire contested delegation known as the Roger Sullivan delegation, turning down the case brought by the Harrison-Hearst faction. Twenty-six seats were involved. The decision does not affect the Presidential contest as all the delegates, contestants and contestees, are for Champ Clark.

A fist fight was narrowly averted before the sub-committee of the National Committee which heard the Rhode Island contests, Frank E. Fitzsimmons, chairman of the Rhode Island Democratic State Central Committee, one of three men contesting credentials held by Rhode Island delegates, called John J. Fitzgerald, who was arguing against the contestants, a "liar" and a "coward." Fitzgerald started for Fitzsimmons, the latter stripped off his coat and a fist fight was imminent when members of the committee and bystanders separated the pair. Both later apologized.

Spirited debate characterized the arguments in the contest from Illinois, in which Mayor Carter H. Harrison and the William Randolph Hearst Democratic faction of Chicago were the contestants against the Roger C. Sullivan faction.

The Harrison-Hearst delegates from the Tenth Cook county districts and the 17th, 21st and 8th district of Illinois, it was maintained, had been selected in regular primary elections, whereas the delegates seated were chosen in the old-fashioned conventions.

Only 78 seats in the whole convention were contested. Shortly before midnight the full committee met to hear reports of the sub-committees and decide the cases.

In the Rhode Island contests the National Committee threw out the contestants instituted by the adherents of Representative O'Saughnessy.

Ten Wilson delegates from South Dakota, followers of National Committeeman Johnson, were given their seats against a contesting Clark delegation. A Pennsylvania contest involving half a vote was settled in favor of the contestants and the six instructed delegates from the Philippines were seated in spite of a contest.

Six followers of Edwin A. Newman, of the District of Columbia, instructed for Clark, were seated against two contesting delegations.

Georgia Delegation Does Not Pledge Support to Parker

Baltimore, June 24.—Although sentiment in the Georgia delegation was said to be practically unanimous in favor of Judge Parker for temporary chairman, the caucus of that delegation accepted the advice of its National committeeman, Clarke Howell, and declined to adopt a resolution pledging its support. The Georgians agreed to follow the lead of Mr. Howell in the chairmanship fight.

Council Postpones Action on Sewerage and Incinerator Questions Until Tomorrow—Statement Is Issued by the Body

After having been in session nearly an hour yesterday morning for the purpose of further considering the modified plans for a sewerage system and the demand of the County Board of Health that the city install an incinerator, the City Council yesterday morning postponed definite action until further information on both propositions can be had. One and maybe both questions will come up for consideration again tomorrow morning. However, owing to the usual large amount of routine business at the regular business at the regular meeting, a special meeting may be called to dispose of the two propositions mentioned.

In accordance with instructions given him last week, Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, presented to Council a statement in the nature of a reply to comments on the comparison of the Charlotte and Wilmington budgets for the fiscal year. The statement was adopted and given out as the position of the Council.

The first matter before the Council was the request of Messrs. Will Rehder and Geo. H. Huttatt that the stables erected for the sanitary department adjoining property owned by them in the northeastern section of the city be removed. Mayor Smith asked Councilman B. C. Moore, who has charge of the sanitary department, what he had to say about the request. He replied that Messrs. Rehder and Huttatt were probably like anybody else would be that if the stables were against their property that they would want them removed, and added that he was willing to do anything Council said for him to do in the matter. The question of location of the stables if they are removed was discussed, but no action was taken, the matter being referred to Councilman B. C. Moore for investigation and report at the meeting tomorrow. It was suggested that land might be secured just on the other side of Smith's Creek beyond Bellevue cemetery. Councilman B. C. Moore suggested that the proper thing to do is to install a disposal basin just south of the city, stating that this could also be used when a sewerage system is installed. Councilman B. C. Moore emphasized the fact that the city will have to quit burying refuse in the ground in the county, or the officials will be indicted by the County Board of Health. Mayor Smith seemed to be of the opinion that there is a limit to the ability of a municipality to perform certain things, as well as an individual, and that it was impossible for the city to install an incinerator and have it in operation by Friday of this week, when the County Board of Health meets again to find out what action has been taken by the city. Councilman B. C. Moore said that compliance with the request of the County Board of Health is not impossible, as that body had only asked that steps be taken to install an incinerator by Friday of this week.

Mr. Chas. E. McKee, of the DeCaire Incinerator Co., of Minneapolis, Minn., appeared at the psychological moment. He mentioned the purpose of his visit and it was decided that he confer with Councilman B. C. Moore and Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, and that the matter be taken up at the meeting tomorrow.

Next came the sewerage question. In accordance with instructions of Councilman P. P. Pillett, city engineer, had modified the plans of Hazelhurst & Anderson to the extent of providing for the sewerage of the northern, eastern and southern parts of the city independent of the plant of the Wilmington Sewerage Co., which operates in the central part of the city. Mr. Pillett reported that the modified plans provide for 26 miles of sewerage. In addition to the 19 miles of the present system, which would give Wilmington seven miles more of sewerage than was originally contemplated and he recommended irrevocably the installation of an intercepting sewer down Water street. He estimated that the 26 miles of sewerage and the intercepting sewer would cost the city $227,000. The cost of the intercepting sewer alone will be about $100,000, for the lowest bid for this sewer, when proposals were opened about ten days ago, was $117,000. Mr. Pillett, in reply to a question, said that the only way to build the system without the intercepting sewer would be to dump the sewerage right in the river at the foot of the street. This would not be satisfactory on account of the fact that the public water supply is secured from the river only a short distance up the stream.

Councilman P. Q. Moore made the significant remark that he could not understand why it is that the Wilmington Sewerage Company is allowed to dump its sewage in the river at the foot of the streets and yet when the city talks of building a plant to provide for carrying the sewage down the river a mile or two in an intercepting sewer and emptying it on a falling tide.

The estimate of the cost of the plant made by City Engineer Pillett does not provide for lateral connections, which will have to be paid for by property owners.

The following statement was then read by Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, and adopted by the Council:

"To the Council:—In compliance with your instructions, the following rather indefinite comparison between the budgets of Charlotte and Wilmington is submitted. Indefinite, because in the absence of the details of appropriations made by the city of Charlotte, an accurate comparison is not possible. Perhaps the shortest way of obeying your request would be to state that the article in the newspaper claiming that the appropriations for the expenses of Wilmington exceeded those of Charlotte to the extent of $27,000 was incorrect. The budget for the ensuing fiscal year for Wilmington is $266,000, not $268,000, and it has not been 25 years since the rate was as high as $1.75 on the $100 valuation. In the absence, as stated, of a detail of the budget of Charlotte, it may be fair to compare the expenses of the two cities for their respective fiscal years, recently expired. Charlotte shows a total expense of $135,000 and Wilmington of $229,000, but from the Charlotte total should be deducted an item of interest, $45,000, and from Wilmington an item of $59,000, making the net total in the case of Charlotte $142,000 and for Wilmington $170,000, an excess for Wilmington of $28,000. But, Wilmington has a police force more than double that of Charlotte, costing $18,000 more, has a fire department more than twice the strength of that of Charlotte, costing $11,000 more, pays for a hospital $6,000 which Charlotte does not, and spends $2,000 on its markets, which is an item not appearing in the Charlotte expenses. Totalling $37,000 and after deducting the $28,000 on the total above shown, making the expenses of Wilmington $9,000 less relatively than those of Charlotte.

"However, these sort of comparisons are never entirely just. It is almost impossible to find exact parallel conditions even in towns where there is less dissimilarity than between Wilmington and Charlotte. Each town must provide for its own peculiar wants. Topography affects the cost of maintaining streets, the character of a population (not its numerical strength) determines the needed extent of police protection, and the apparent large cost of a fire department means efficiency, which is promptly reflected in the comfort of security and economy of lessened premium rate.

"As stated, it would be difficult to make an accurate comparison without an entire re-classification of the items in one budget or the other, the books being differently kept, but it might be well to note one item, which may or may not be of value. The health department of Charlotte cost $18,952.06, of which $13,908.05 is classified as salaries and labor, and $3,044.01 for supplies. The health department of Wilmington cost $15,565.12, of which $9,504.24 is for salaries and labor, $2,941.00 for removal of slops, $748.61 for incidentals such as printing, advertising, lights, etc., and $2,971.37 for care of contagious diseases, disinfectants, destruction of flies, mosquitoes and kindred work.

"It might also be added that Wilmington has the lowest fire rating in the State, and the $11,000 excess cost over Charlotte of our fire department is largely recouped in reduced fire insurance premiums.

"Very respectfully,
THOS. D. MEARES,
"Clerk."

The following is the report of Mr. P. F. Pillett, city engineer, with reference to the change in the plans for a sewerage system:

"To the Honorable Mayor and Council:—I herewith submit estimate of the cost of sewerage that part of the city lying outside of the portion now served by the Wilmington Sewerage Company, and included within the following boundaries: following Greenfield street east to and including Fourth to Wright, thence east including Wright to Ninth, thence north including Ninth to Wooster, thence east including Wooster to Eleventh, thence north including Eleventh to Castle, thence west including Castle to Eighth, thence north including Eighth to Ann, thence east including Ann to 14th, thence north including 14th to Orange, thence east including Orange to 17th, thence north including 17th to Chesnut, thence west including Chesnut to 13th, thence north including 13th to Rankin, thence west including Rankin to Dickinson, thence north including Dickinson to Panning, thence west including Panning to McRae, thence north including McRae and Ninth to Nixon, thence west including Nixon to Sixth, thence north including Sixth to a point midway between Howard and Smith, thence following the line of the intercepting sewer as indicated on the accompanying map along the right-of-way of the S. A. L. to a point at the intercepting of Campbell street and Water.

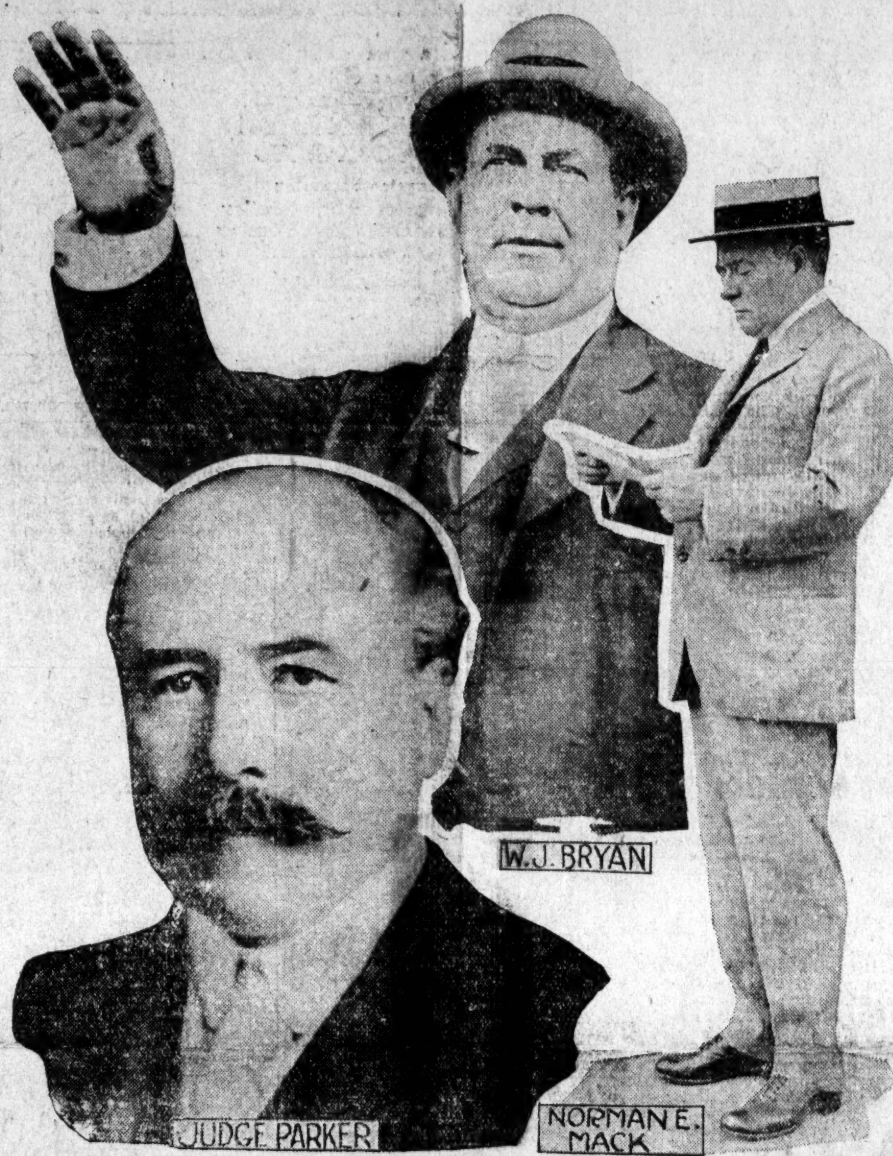

"All that portion of the city within the above named boundaries being resubdivided by extensions of the sewer according to the plan submitted by Hazelhurst & Anderson save that portion now occupied by the Wilmington Sewerage Company. Proposed plan here-with submitted included the construction of the intercepting sewer as proposed by Hazelhurst & Anderson and contemplates disposal of all the effluent of the Wilmington Sewerage Company's plant by way of a pumping station near Burnt Mill Creek discharging into the intercepting sewer and discharge of the mains of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, which now enter the river at several points, into the intercepting sewer.

"In my opinion the construction of the intercepting sewer as planned by Hazelhurst & Anderson is absolutely necessary.

"The area covered by this proposed sewer will give the 26 miles of sewerage streets in addition to the one of sewer now occupied by the Wilmington Sewerage Company, these two being seven miles more than was originally contemplated. In addition the proposed plan contemplates the installation of the sterilizing plant as required by the North Carolina State Board of Health.

"The following is an approximate estimate of the cost:

Kinston, N. C., June 24.—Kinstonians are showing a deal of interest in the record of George Suggs, the star pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds. In spite of the fact that the Reds seem to be on the toboggan, it is a noticeable fact that the big twirler's pitching percentage stays on the top side of 500, and a Boston dispatch to the Cincinnati Post says that he is "the only dependable pitcher" on the club. A series of evangelistic services were begun in the Memorial Presbyterian church here yesterday, with Rev. Wm. Black, of Charlotte, in charge. Mr. Black is a preacher of State-wide reputation, and his work is usually attended with great success. Large audiences heard him yesterday. Rev. P. T. Clark, of the local church, is assisting.

Dr. Strosnider, of the State hookworm commission, states that 50 per cent. of the applicants examined by him in Lenoir county in the past three weeks showed infection in some stage of the disease. Interest in the work of Dr. Strosnider and his assistants in this county has been pronounced, and in some cases people came 15 and 20 miles for examination. The "infectious" have been conducted at Kinston, LaGrange and three other points in Lenoir, and during last week alone inspection was made of 450 applicants. YOUTH STABS HIS BROTHER

Clifton Betts, of Raleigh, Killed in Boyish Scuffle—Officers Think the Tragedy Was Probably Accidental.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Raleigh, N. C., June 24.—Levene Betts, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin J. (Cheek) Betts, killed his brother, Clifton Betts, Sunday afternoon at the Betts home on Boylan avenue. Clifton was 20 years old. The boy's statement of the killing, which is generally accepted as true by the officers, is that he was on a couch in the Betts home trimming his finger nails with a knife when the older brother came through the hall and pushed him back on the couch, holding him there in fun, and that in some way, in the scuffle, the fatal cutting occurred. The wound was a stab just over the heart and is as small as a lead pencil, a typical stab rather than a gash. The boy insists that he was not angry and had no intention of cutting his brother. On the other hand, the officers are of the opinion that anger was engendered in the scuffle the boy describes, and that, while the lad had no idea of killing his brother, he might have stabbed at him in the boyish scuffle.

The officers found the father of the two boys right much intoxicated when they reached the house. They had first heard that the older brother was trying to get his intoxicated father to bed when the younger brother took the father's part and dealt the fatal stab. They do not credit this report now. Levene had left home when the officers reached the house, but another brother went to a neighbor's house and brought him back. The Betts family is a large one and is well connected. Levene is a newsboy and has for a long while done a thriving business selling newspapers.

Clifton Betts, the young man killed, was a press feeder in the employ of E. M. Uzzell Co., State printers. The father of the boys is a printer employed by Edwards & Broughton Co.

The officers investigating the killing have about reached the conclusion that the killing was accidental. The boy has insisted that the two were scuffling in fun on the couch when Clifton suddenly pressed down upon the open knife which Levene had been using on his finger nails. Raymond Betts, another brother, insists that he saw the affair and that the cutting was purely accidental and that before he

it is pointed out that there was only a bare majority for removal either in the meeting of the stockholders or directors. There are also those who say that if the fight were reopened the vote would be for retaining the offices in Raleigh by a good majority. However, there is no definite move yet looking to disturbing the programme for removal that is being pushed in compliance with the vote of the stockholders Friday.

Friends here learned with keen regret of the accident that befel Corporation Commissioner W. T. Lee in Waynesville yesterday when his horse ran away, threw him from the buggy and seriously injured him about the right eye and temple. Mr. Lee had gone to his home in Waynesville to spend a few days in the absence of pressing duties in the Corporation Commission offices here.

Announcement is made from the State Department of Education that the examinations of public school teachers in the elementary and high schools of the State will be held at each county seat under the supervision of the county superintendents on July 13th. The examination papers are forwarded to the State Department of Education and passed upon by the State Board of Examiners headed by State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner.

Teachers' Institutes for the public school teachers of the counties in which they are held, are in progress this week in Edgecombe, Halifax, Lenoir, Person and Washington. There was to have been a joint institute in Cherokee county for that county and Clay county, but it is postponed until July 1st. These institutes continue two weeks.

SUNDAY SURPRISE WEDDING.

Popular Young Couple Steal a March on Their Friends.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., June 24.—The citizens of our town were given a pleasant surprise Sunday evening, when it became known that Mr. Robert M. Browder had made Miss Virginia Boyette his bride that evening at 8 o'clock. The young couple left the city at 2 o'clock on a drive to Kenansville, which place they had planned for the happy event, but not being able to secure the services of a minister, they returned here, and were married at the home of the bride's mother, in the presence of a few friends, by Rev. E. J. Harrell, of the Baptist church.

The bride is the popular and attractive young daughter of Mrs. Jennie Boyette, of this place, and has a large circle of friends. The groom is a young man prominent in our social and business circles, is a native of Lawrenceville, Va., and at present holds a responsible position with the Camp Manufacturing Company here. Though the marriage was a surprise to all, the romance was the culmination of a courtship of long duration.

The attendants were Miss Allie Pearl Loftin, Mrs. E. J. Harrell, Messrs. John Bolling, Dave Stevens and J. D. Brown.

The many friends of the happy young couple wish them much success and happiness.

Paris, June 22.—Major Renard, of the French army, who has been making a study of aeroplane accidents and their causes, has reached some interesting conclusions. Of the fatal accidents in 1911, he finds that 25 per cent. were due to the lack of moral aptitude on the part of the pilots. Thirteen per cent. were due to insufficient instruction, 6 per cent. to the excessive daring of the aviators, and 6 per cent. to their imprudence and carelessness. Thirteen per cent. are laid to the faulty construction of the machines, 20 per cent. to insufficient altitude, and 10 to 12 per cent. to adverse atmospheric conditions.

CONFERENCE OF LIBRARIANS

Meeting Will be Held at Ottawa, Ontario, to Set Forth the Opportunities Afforded by These Public Institutions.

Ottawa, Ont., June 24.—The opportunity afforded by the public library as an open door for information and culture will be set forth prominently at the conference of librarians of the United States and Canada at Ottawa, Ontario, June 26th to July 2nd.

The concern of the community in the awakening and development of taste in individuals will be the keynote of the programme papers and addresses. This thought will be outlined in President Elmendorf's address, and three of the general sessions will develop the theme more fully. Library publicity, book advertising, the breadth and limitations of book buying, and the efficiency of library assistants and their relations to the public will be among the topics discussed. The programme will partake of the international nature of the meeting, one session being wholly devoted to Canadian topics by Canadian speakers, among who will be George E. Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce; James W. Robertson, C. M. G., of the Commission of Conservation; Prof. Andrew Marshall, of McGill University, Montreal, and George E. Locke, librarian of the Toronto public library.

Other speakers will be William H. Hutton, of New London, Wis.; Carl B. Roden, of the Chicago public library; Walter L. Brown, secretary of the Indiana library commission; Miss Tessa L. Kelso, of New York; Miss Mary E. Hazeltine, principal of the Wisconsin library school; Miss Edith Tobitt, librarian of Omaha; several sections of the Detroit public library, and Chalmers Hadley, librarian of Denver.

One evening will be devoted to an address by Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota, and formerly dean of the University of Chicago. Several sections and affiliated organizations will hold meetings in Ottawa at the same time, among which are the State librarians, the law librarians, the League of Library Commissions, and the Special Libraries' Association.

For the first time in its history the president of the American Library Association is a woman. At the 1911 conference held at Pasadena, Cal., Mrs. H. L. Elmendorf, vice librarian of the Buffalo public library, was unanimously elected president, the librarians following the example of the National Education Association in choosing Mrs. Ella Flagg Young as its president, and the National Association of Charities and Correction in electing Miss Jane Addams as its head. Mrs. Almendorf formerly was chief librarian of the Milwaukee public library and is one of the recognized authorities of the country in book selection. She was one of the editors of the "American Library Association Catalogue of 8,000 Volumes for a popular library," published in 1904, which has been the most valuable and widely used library aid ever compiled. The other officers are: First vice president, Henry E. Bogler, librarian of the Chicago public library; second vice president, Miss Mary W. Plummer, director of the New York public library school; secretary and executive officer, George W. Utley, of Chicago, and treasurer, Carl B. Roden, assistant librarian of the Chicago public library.

The American Library Association was organized in 1876 and has held annual conferences every year since, except in 1878 and 1884. The headquarters offices are in the Chicago public library building. There are at present about 2,300 members.

There were several Atlanta people to arrive at the Seashore Hotel Sunday, among whom were Mrs. Hudson Moore and little son, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Miss Rosalie Davis, a most attractive young lady, who has many friends among the society folk of Wilmington.

Platt & Haar's art department at the Oceanic Hotel is proving very popular, not only with the ladies of the hotel, but the ladies at the other hotels and at the cottages on the beach. Everything carried in the mammoth stock of Platt & Haar, in the city, will be served up at the Wrightsville branch of the firm.

The arrivals at The Oceanic Sunday included the following: H. L. Rogers, T. G. Ambuhl, Atlanta; T. G. McNeal and J. Ross McNeal, Burg; O. G. Minshew, Atlanta; C. S. Hollingsworth, Columbia, S. C.; Miss A. B. Dowd, Charlotte; Geo. W. Fosshee, Greensboro; P. M. Southern, Goldsboro; E. M. Fry, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gelschen, Atlanta; T. A. Dewey, P. L. Borden and E. B. The hotels on Wrightsville Beach are proving more popular than ever, with the people from Wilmington. Both the Seashore and Oceanic Hotels had an unusually large number of townpeople for dinner and supper Sunday, the greater number being out for the evening meal. Besides the regular guests in the hotel, the Seashore had over 200 people for supper Sunday night. The Oceanic Hotel likewise had the largest number of any Sunday since the opening of the season.

Mrs. J. J. Thomas and daughter, Miss Lena Thomas, and two young sons, of Mobile, Ala., are at the cottage of Mr. J. A. Fountain, for a stay of some days. Mrs. Thomas is the wife of Mr. J. J. Thomas, superintendent of motive power of the Mobile & Ohio Railroad. Miss Lena Thomas is a highly cultivated singer and her voice has been very much enjoyed at the cottage since her arrival. Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Pillett, of Wilmington, are also spending a short time at Mr. Fountain's cottage. Mr. Pillett, who is city engineer, is formerly of Mobile, Ala.

Among the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel Sunday were C. Wolfe, Waxhaw; L. W. Barnes, Henderson; W. E. Kindley, W. E. Kindley, Jr., Sol. W. Cooper, Jr., Robt. L. Holland and Walter W. Cook, Fayetteville; C. N. Bruner and A. N. Hendrick, Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crane, Dr. T. H. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Crowell, Marion, S. C.; P. J. Foard, Hamlet; C. H. Atkins, Roanoke.

Sunday's Atlanta Georgian: "Plans for Summer develop with every day, and many Atlanta people are now on the wing." As usual, Wrightsville Beach claims a large number of the early Summer tourists from this city. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Philip Hinman and Master Thomas Philip Hinman, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. William C. Jarman, Miss Erskine Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Forrester and Mr. Geo. Forrester, Jr., left this week for Wrightsville. Mrs. Edward Van Winkle and young son, Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stearns and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meador and Miss Charlotte Meador leave next week for a stay at the beach. A number of young women there at present includes Misses Louise Broyles, Helen Benedict, Josephine Mobley, Helen McCarty, Louise Parker, Myra Clarke Scott, Mary Murphy, Emily Cassin and Ellen Wolf.

Sunday at the resort broke all records for the present season in point of attendance, and the records of the Tidewater Power Company show that about 3,600 people visited the beach during the day, 700 more than on the previous Sunday. The most of these were Wilmingtonians, but many came from nearby towns and cities, running down for the day only.

The concerts at the hotels and at Lumina were heard by large audiences, as usual, and of course, were thoroughly enjoyed. Probably the hit of the day at Lumina was Champ Clark's quickly-famed campaign song, "You Gotta Stop Kickin' My Dog Around," played at the afternoon concert. During the rendition of the selection, a tiny white poodle caught the infection of the rollicking music and walked out on the stage, where he lifted his voice in unison with the brass and strings of the orchestra. The waves of applause that followed over-excited him and in his zeal to live up to the occasion he slipped on the waxed floor and bumped his little nose, which reduced his enthusiasm to some extent. The surf was in an excellent condition for bathing Sunday afternoon and Sunday morning. At Lumina over 600 went in during the afternoon, and the Seashore about 300 and probably as many more from the other hotels, club houses and cottages.

ABUSING PRIVILEGE.

Grove "Autoway" Near Asheville May Be Abolished.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Asheville, N. C., June 24.—The Grove "autoway," the automobile highway, which E. W. Grove had built to the top of Sunset mountain from the city limits, a distance of about two miles and practically donated to the automobilists of the city, may have to be closed on account of the abuse of the privileges by some automobilists who use the road as a place for speeding. Repeatedly they have been warned about it, but the speeding continues and recently accidents have been narrowly averted. The road is smooth and well graded, but the management recognizes that it is no place for a reckless driver, and on this account carriages have never been allowed on it.

The motor club is making efforts to stop the abuse and it is likely that any motorist who is seen going faster than 15 miles an hour will be excluded from the road. Several of the Baracas and Philathes of the city are attending the National convention at Norfolk. Efforts will be made to get the convention to come to Asheville next year. The city made a hard fight for it this year.

HOO HOO CONVENTION.

Lumbermen From Entire Country Will Meet at Asheville.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Asheville, N. C., June 24.—Probably the largest convention that will be held here this Summer will be that of the Hoo Hoo, of the United States and Canada, and great preparations are being made to entertain them when they arrive on July 17th, for a two days' session. They will make their headquarters at the Battery Park Hotel, but a dance will be given at the Langley, the newly completed concrete structure. The arrangements are in charge of Vice Regent Snark J. M. English, of this city, and they have now been completed and the Asheville people are going to do everything in their power to make them have a good time, and the entertainment will include drives and sightseeing tours in the city and vicinity. Asheville was really very fortunate to get the gathering as the members could have chosen any city in the United States or Canada. It is not known just how many members will attend, but it is said that about 300 ladies may be looked for and the hotel capacity may be taxed.

PLANS IMPROVEMENTS.

Carolina Machinery Co., Absorbs American Foundry & Machine Co. (Special Star Correspondence.) Asheville, N. C., June 24.—The Carolina Machinery Company has been formed here for the purpose of taking over the plant and property of the American Foundry & Supply Company of this city. The new organization is capitalized at $50,000 and this is fully paid in. W. F. Decker is president; S. Sternberg, vice president, and F. A. Lindsey, secretary-treasurer. The directors are George A. Heywood, E. B. Campbell, F. A. Lindsey, S. Sternberg and W. F. Decker. There is already a finely equipped plant, but the new company plan to make great improvements, including a siding. The American Foundry & Supply Company became involved in bankruptcy last year and was wound up by S. G. Bernard as trustee. He sold the property to W. F. Decker for about $25,000 and the above company was formed to take it over. Those interested are representative business men.

DANGER PERIOD OF WOMAN'S LIFE FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N. C.—"I suffered for years with female trouble while going through the Change of Life. I tried a local physician for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results. I am today practically a well woman and anxious to contribute my mite towards inducing others to try your great medicine, as I am fully persuaded that it will cure the ailments from which I suffered if given a fair change."

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N. C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin. Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 353 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEGREE FOR J. E. SHEPARD.

D. D. Conferred on President of Durham's Colored School.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Durham, N. C., June 24.—That the North Carolina negro, who has been prepared to give service to his community and at the same time help reach the masses of his race and effectively lift them to higher planes and making hundreds of them desirable citizens, is appreciated in every section of the country was evidenced the other day at New Concord, Ohio. Because of his eminent fitness for the ministry and the real effective work that he is accomplishing as founder and president of the National Religious Training School, this city, Muskingum College, at Concord, Ohio, conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon Rev. Jas. E. Shepard. Although the institution conferring the degree is one of the smaller colleges, yet its standard is so high and its graduates such eminent characters that it is recognized throughout the country as a great institution of learning.

This act of the college is quite significant because Dr. Shepard is the only negro ever honored by this college. Among the host of graduates who are rendering their share for the true uplift of humanity are Dr. Harper, president of Chicago University; Dr. Morehead, Dean of Xenia Theological Seminary, Xenia, Ohio; Dr. Lawrence, Hon. W. J. Bryan's pastor; Dr. McClenahan, pastor of the great Presbyterian church, Pittsburg, Pa.; Dr. Jesse Johnson, an authority on church history and Apologetics and such men as Rev. J. Walter Lightitt. This college boasts of the fact that 55 per cent. of its male graduates are either in the ministry or the missionary work of the world. This is a signal honor for the negro who will work for the uplift of his people.
